

Ready for July Fourth Celebration

Nearly a hundred to report for army service next week

Rev. Vondracek reappointed to Arlington

Palatine church without a regular pastor

The heavy hand of war was laid upon the annual session of the Rock River Methodist conference, (Northern Illinois), just closed at the Chicago Temple, Washington at Clark st., Chicago. Throughout the 5 day session Chaplains and enlisted men were in evidence and from the conference floor reports, resolutions and sermons did not allow for a moment's relaxation of the tensions created by as grave a national emergency as the one America and the world face.

As a consequence some churches were left without ministers and others are being supplied by either students or retired men. Twenty-two men from the ranks of the clergy have answered the call to the 5 day session. The time? One to two o'clock.

Feature of the program is to be a "Goldfish Catch" when twelve goldfish will be tossed in the pool for grade school children and then for high school people to capture. (It is urged that divers try particularly hard to catch two goldfish, for wouldn't one be lonely in a solitary bowl?)

In addition there will be free style swimming races and diving for coins for the different age groups.

Money prizes will be given to first, second and third place winners, in all the contest including the goldfish catch. The pool will be open to contestants at 12:30 on Monday instead of the usual 1 o'clock.

Members of the committee in charge of these events are: Geo. Schneberger, John Randag, William McKay, George Glow, John L. Grose, and Ken Barnhill.

With the arrival of warm weather, the attention of dog owners is called to the village ordinance that requires that all dogs on streets be muzzled. This is another measure to safeguard the lives of our children.

Police have orders to pick up all dogs found running at large, with or without village license tags.

Again the cooperation of the public is requested.

ALBERT W. GOEDKE, President Village of Arlington Heights.

FETLER FAMILY BAND which will present a cosmopolitan program on Sunday evening, July 4. The family is as cosmopolitan as their music, for they were born in five different countries and speak seven languages fluently. They have also attended 29 different schools in 12 countries. Having given over 700 concerts in Europe, the FETLER family has surpassed that record in this country. More than 1,000 programs have been presented here.

Uncle Sam takes the devil

The editor is in the army, two printers have landed. Senior Devil of Paddock Publications, Harold Bauer, was sworn into the U. S. Marine Corps on Monday and expects to leave for training soon.

Stuart Paddock, Jr., formerly news editor of the Herald, is a 1st lieutenant in the Tank Destroyers, while Willard and Richard Schoepke, linotype operator and steno-typist respectively, are members of the navy.

Goldfish or cash to be prizes for swimmers July 5

Come one, come all! Do you want to win a goldfish? — or money! As part of the July 4 celebration, various contests will be held for grade and high school boys and girls at the swimming pool on Monday. The time? One to two o'clock.

Feature of the program is to be a "Goldfish Catch" when twelve goldfish will be tossed in the pool for grade school children and then for high school people to capture. (It is urged that divers try particularly hard to catch two goldfish, for wouldn't one be lonely in a solitary bowl?)

Hartmanns have narrow escape

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Hartmann, Arlington Heights, were on their way home from St. Francis hospital, Evanston, Monday morning when their car was struck by a Montana car traveling in the opposite direction. Mrs. Hartmann received two broken ribs, has scratches in knee and cut in forehead. The accident occurred opposite the Lord & Burnham plant on the Northwest highway. The Montana car was being driven east by Ernest M. Johnson, who was going too fast to make the turn safely. His car skidded across the pavement into the path of the Hartmann car. Johnson is in the Northwestern hospital severely injured.

Fireworks taboo warning

Attention again is directed to the law forbidding the sale or use of fireworks within the corporate limits of the Village of Arlington Heights except by authorized persons at a properly licensed public display.

Instructions have been given to the police to enforce the anti-fireworks law and parents are reminded of their responsibility in this matter. Strict adherence to the law will prevent painful injury to the youth of our village and will help to soothe the war torn nerves of the adult population.

Your cooperation is respectfully solicited.

CARL H. SKOOG, Chief of Police.

By Direction of, ALBERT W. GOEDKE, President.

POSTOFFICE CLOSED MONDAY

Arlington Heights postoffice and many business houses will be closed all day Monday.

Seek funds for storm sewer at Scarsdale

Delegates from Scarsdale Improvement association and Scarsdale Estates met with Arlington Heights village board Monday evening to discuss drainage possibilities for that part of Scarsdale that adjoins Rockwell st., as well as Scarsdale estates.

Scarsdale residents want relief from flood waters. Suggestion that an open ditch be constructed by the joint action of the township and village provided Scarsdaleans pay for materials, did not meet with very much favor.

A regular sewer appeared the solution until somebody mentioned, "now who will pay for it?" Mayor Goedke did not know the answer so a special committee was appointed to secure pertinent facts by a discussion with the village attorney. Those serving on the committee are Wm. Franke, Hugo Thal, representing the village; Mike Dobbins and Carl Behrens, the township; Paul E. Collins, James Sommer, and Milo Little Scarsdale Improvement association and Theo. D. Hazen of Scarsdale estates.

Death takes Arlington former businesswoman

Mrs. Jeanette Webber, who has been identified many years in the business life of Arlington Heights, passed away at St. Francis hospital, Evanston, Thursday evening, June 24, at the age of 62 years, 3 months and 18 days.

The Webber Paint Co., originally established by her late husband, was an integral part of her life for many years. She was thoroughly familiar with paint problems and many a housewife looked upon her as an authority on interior decorating. She took a lot of pleasure in the store and even after her son, Orval Baldwin, took over complete management she enjoyed helping out behind the counter.

Due to ill health she was confined to her home more and more and at the time that she was taken to the hospital a few weeks ago she had not been in the store for a year.

Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon, June 27, at 2:30 p. m. at Karstens funeral home, Rev. Kampenke, officiating. Interment was in Ridgewood cemetery.

Mrs. Webber leaves her son, Orval Baldwin, a daughter-in-law, Daisy Baldwin, three grandchildren, Lloyd, Jean and Craig Baldwin, and three brothers, William Vanderberg, Chicago; Richard Michigan; and Frank of Decatur.

Woman's club holds tag day Saturday

The Public Health and Child Hygiene committee of the Arlington Heights Woman's club, of which Mrs. Albert E. Goldthwaite is chairman, will hold a tag day July 3, proceeds from which will go to the Arlington Heights Public Health committee. This committee sponsors the Dental Clinic, Infant Welfare Clinic, Pre-school Clinic, and the health programs in the local schools.

Many of the younger generation who benefit, will tag, as well as the women of the Woman's club.

The taggers plan to meet the five thirty-three a. m. train and continue working until six o'clock at night.

Makes cultivator of scrap materials

John Pfingsten of Arlington Heights has overcome one of the disadvantages of war by using his own ingenuity. Because many garden tools are almost impossible to get, he has put together a homemade cultivator which is the envy of his neighbors. Out of a conduit pipe, scrap iron, and a wheel from a wheel-chair, Mr. Pfingsten has made a very efficient cultivator.

Faced with either of two possibilities — make one themselves or turn green with envy — several of the Pfingsten's neighbors have started making their cultivators, too.

Younger men predominate; 14 volunteers

Selective Service Board No. 1, Cook county, in response to the largest call received since the organization of the board are sending nearly a hundred into service next week. Nearly three fourths of those reporting are in the younger age group and only 25 are from the original registration. Included in the one group are many married men. Twin brothers, Marvin and Norman Russel, Arlington Heights, will enter service together. Fourteen volunteers head the list, three of whom are from the earlier registrations.

Last to leave for officer training

John J. Hasterock, Wheeling and David P. Rowe, Chicago, are the last VOC men from this area, enlistments for which have been closed. They reported for induction Wednesday.

Holy Name Society of St. James church, Arlington Heights, will host Thursday morning, July 8, at the breakfast to be served the men before their departure.

Arlington to have Little Theatre group

Since the children of Arlington Heights are having so much fun with their theatre group, it has been suggested that the grownups get together in a similar way. An organization meeting will be held at the Field House next Wednesday evening, July 7, at eight o'clock of all those interested in working on a three act play this summer.

All are welcome to join the group, to be called the "Meeting-House Players" whether they are interested in acting or not. There will be plenty of production jobs as well as collecting props, working lights, shifting scenery, doing make-up, costumes, etc. Men and women, of all ages, old or young, experienced or inexperienced, are invited to join.

The selection of the play is as yet undecided, but suggestions will be welcome at Wednesday's meeting.

Evening hours at ration board office

Arlington Heights Ration Board office will hereafter be closed Wednesday afternoons. It will be open Monday and Thursday evening between seven and nine to accommodate those who are unable to call there during regular business hours.

Chairman Malzahn reports that renewal applications for A cards are being received in substantial numbers. "The wise motorist is taking care of the matter now and will avoid the last minute rush and subsequent delay in securing his new A book," says Mr. Malzahn. The applications can be obtained from any gas station and can be mailed to the ration office.

Tire Inspection Necessary

Applications for new A cards must be accompanied by a current tire inspection. Holders of B and C cards must also comply. The back part of their original A book must also be forwarded with the application. Present A books expire July 23.

Those who have not already bought season tickets for the pool are urged to do so as soon as possible to take full advantage of this fine place to swim. Tickets for families, single adults, young people, and children, are still available and may be purchased at the Field House or from Mr. Marion Hogate.

Wisconsin fishing licenses on sale at village hall

Wisconsin or Illinois fishing licenses may be obtained at the village hall, Arlington Heights, any time of day or night. Phone 330 during regular business hours or holidays. "The policy of having the police desk sergeants handle licenses is to accommodate those who cannot call during regular business hours," says Forrest Davis, Village Clerk.

Young peoples theater opening will be Sat.

Arlington Heights has again taken the lead in community enterprise with the launching of the Young People's Theatre. Nearly a hundred boys and girls from all schools in Arlington Heights have enrolled for the summer season, and are head over heels in the "theatre." The Methodist Gym is a hive of activity these mornings with rehearsals for the first production, casting for future plays, the preparation of properties and costumes, and enthusiasm for the "Land of Let's Pretend" runs high.

The first performance will be given Saturday, July 3, by the Mother Goose Players of the Young People's Theatre, presenting "Mother Goose Enlists." Through the wholehearted and enthusiastic cooperation of Mr. Donald Knapp of the Arlington Theatre, the plays are to be given at the theatre in connection with the Saturday matinee, regularly during the summer season.

Regular prices will prevail at the Arlington Theatre for Saturday matinees for the entire program, theatre presentation and movies. Doors open at 1 o'clock.

News of the Young People's Theatre is traveling far, and the venture is being watched with envy and admiration. With the ability and experience of Mrs. Elizabeth Andrews, Speech and Dramatic Art teacher, and the enthusiastic support of Mr. Knapp, there is every evidence that the Theatre will have a most successful season.

Regular prices will prevail at the Arlington Theatre for Saturday matinees for the entire program, theatre presentation and movies. Doors open at 1 o'clock.

High school band members attention

All band members and baton twirlers are urged to participate in the parade Monday morning, July 5. They are asked to meet at the South Side School building at nine o'clock for a rehearsal. The two song books used in the Memorial Day Parade, will again be used.

The Parade

Marching starts promptly at 10 o'clock, organization at the south school at 9:30, and will form in the following order:

1. Police Escort.
2. Massed Colors.
3. Crystal Lake Senior Drum & Bugle Corps.
4. Men and women in service.
5. Arlington Heights Trade & Civic Assn.
6. Gions Club.
7. Mayor and Village Board.
8. Park Boards.
9. School Boards.
10. Arlington Heights Fire Dept.
11. Spanish American War Veterans.
12. Arlington Heights V.F.W. Post.
13. Arlington Heights V.F.W. Auxiliary.
14. Crystal Lake V.F.W. Post & Auxiliary.
15. Arlington Heights American Legion.
16. Arlington Heights American Legion Auxiliary.
17. Arlington Heights High School Band.
18. Girl Scouts.
19. Cub Pack.
20. Boy Scouts.
21. School Children.
22. Civilian Defense (all units).
23. Bicycle Parade.

All other organized units or groups who may have been unintentionally omitted from the above list, are cordially invited to participate in the parade.

The line of march will be the same as in previous years, and will terminate at Recreation Park.

All records are broken at swim opening

With attendance figures that ranged from 1072 to 5, the Arlington Heights swimming pool has had a successful if variable opening week.

Receipts varied as much as the attendance, for Friday afternoon two people were kept busy just writing season passes, while on Tuesday, when the temperature was 54, Mr. McElhose says he took in 44 cents and then closed up within an hour.

First in the pool was a 12 year old boy who appeared on the scene at eleven o'clock Friday morning with the opening scheduled for one. By one o'clock the back steps of the Field House was virtually packed with would-be swimmers, the majority having been on hand an hour or more.

The fact that the opening of the pool was delayed two days due to an insufficient water supply, might have had something to do with the crowds. However, the size of the group which did arrive was unprecedented as far as opening days go.

Those who have not already bought season tickets for the pool are urged to do so as soon as possible to take full advantage of this fine place to swim. Tickets for families, single adults, young people, and children, are still available and may be purchased at the Field House or from Mr. Marion Hogate.

Wisconsin fishing licenses on sale at village hall

Wisconsin or Illinois fishing licenses may be obtained at the village hall, Arlington Heights, any time of day or night. Phone 330 during regular business hours or holidays. "The policy of having the police desk sergeants handle licenses is to accommodate those who cannot call during regular business hours," says Forrest Davis, Village Clerk.

Following the parade a patriotic program will open with songs by Elizabeth Frye Carr.

After the noon hour a fun program at the swimming pool will afford the opportunity for some of the local swimmers obtaining war stamps as prizes. There will be a lot happening during the afternoon. In the early evening Wally Hahnfeldt's orchestra will furnish the dance music at the field house.

With the arrival of darkness giant bombs will announce the start of the fireworks which will have much of their old time splendor, but which will probably not be seen again until after the war.

The best part of the entire celebration is the purpose of the show — a demonstration of patriotism and profits to the Civilian Defense, upon which organization there are many calls. With fair weather the two days, it will be unnecessary for the local OCD to make any other calls on the general public for funds the coming year.

New closing hours

Starting this Sunday, July 4, the undersigned drug stores and confectioneries in Arlington Heights, will close from 1 to 5 p. m. o'clock Sundays during the summer months, and if conditions warrant such closings will continue. Monday, July 5, being a holiday, the Sunday closing hours will be in effect.

Patrons of these stores, it is hoped, will suffer no great inconvenience.

Fred is sold on Arlington Heights and the future

Fred Gruenes, who owns and operates Fred's Quality Meat Market, formerly at 17 E. Miner st., hasn't taken seriously the statement carried in Chicago papers a few days ago that about half the independent meat markets would be forced to close their doors. Instead he has moved a few doors east to a bigger and better location on Miner and Ey-ergreen sts., where patrons will now find him in attractive new surroundings.

Mr. Gruenes, who opened a meat market in Arlington Heights two years ago says he is both optimistic about Arlington Heights and the future. Some day the war will end and there will be plenty of meat of all kinds for everybody. In the meantime, Mr. Gruenes is going to continue to smile with good humor when disappointed housewives scold him because he can't furnish them with the things they want.

East Maine

Sgt. Earl Wilke returned this week to Jefferson Barracks, Mo., after spending a fifteen day furlough visiting with his parents,
Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand J. Wilke.
The family entertained at a party in honor of Sergeant Earl on Sunday evening.
A group of relatives and friends of Mrs. Fred Finnern dropped in to help her celebrate her birthday anniversary on Sunday, June 27.

Mrs. Arthur Schuknecht came home from the Northwestern hospital in Des Plaines on June 26 with her baby daughter who was born on June 17. Little Ruth Marie weighed 7 1/2 pounds at birth. She has a sister, Lois, who is two years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Hewitt of Greenwood avenue, entertained 25 guests at their home June 25 in honor of their daughter, Judy's sixth birthday.
Mrs. Don Fick of Golf road, was guest of honor at a stork shower given at the home of Mrs.
Harold Stolner in Chicago on Monday evening, June 21. Twenty ladies were present and brought Mrs. Fick many lovely gifts wrapped in pink and blue. The ladies enjoyed a pleasant social evening.

Mrs. Charles Schuknecht received word Friday, June 25, of the death of her father, Mr. Joachim Mueller, who passed away that day at his home in Norwood Park. Mr. Mueller was 77 years of age and died in his sleep. He was buried at Town of Maine Cemetery in Park Ridge on Monday, with services at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Rev. A. Zimmer officiating.

The East Maine Civilian Defense Council is asking that folks of the community help make their annual picnic a success by bringing same on Sunday, July 11.
The picnic will be held at the Croatian picnic grounds on Ballard road at Potter. It will start at 2
p. m. and continue throughout the evening. Admission 35 cents with all services, men and children under 14 admitted free.

Palatine boy dies on eve of enlistment as a paratrooper

William A. Birks, 22, son of Mr.
and Mrs. Egerton Birks, Palatine, died suddenly Wednesday, June 28,
at the home of his grandparents,
Mr. and Mrs. William T. Trudell in London, Ontario, where he made his home while attending the University of Western Ontario. He expected to become a paratrooper in the Canadian army within two weeks. He graduated from the Palatine high school in 1939.

A student at the University for four years, Mr. Birks graduated with a B.A. degree this year. He was a scholarship winner during his course, and was a member of the C.O.T.C. and Alpha Kappa Phi fraternity, having served as a secretary of that fraternity.

Surviving are two brothers, Robert, of Palatine, and Kenneth, a member of the U.S. Marine Corps at San Diego; one sister, Marion, of Palatine.

The funeral was held Saturday at London, with interment in Woodlawn cemetery. His brother, Kenneth, flew from California in order to attend the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Birks left for Canada immediately upon receiving the sad news. Mrs. Birks is remaining there until next week.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Christian Science" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 27.

The Golden Text was, "Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee" (Isaiah 60:1).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie; though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry. For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as waters cover the sea" (Hab. 2:
1, 3, 14).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy:
"Divine Science derives its sanction from the Bible, and the divine origin of Science is demonstrated through the holy influence of Truth in healing sickness and sin. This healing power of Truth has been far more anterior to the period in which Jesus lived. It is as ancient as the Ancient Days" (Page 146).

Mildred Moeller married to Ensign Shean Saturday

St. Matthews Lutheran church in East Maine was the scene of the first all military wedding ever held within its portals when on Saturday, June 26, at seven o'clock p. m. Miss Mildred Moel-ler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
William K. Moeller of East Maine, became the bride of Ensign Walter John Shean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wray Shean, Sr., of Waukegan.

The church was decorated with baskets of red, white and blue flowers and the bridal couple repeated their vows standing between the flag of their church and the stars and stripes of their country. Rev. Julius Toepel performed the ceremony. Teacher George Sanders presided at the organ.

The lovely bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of gleaming white satin with a very long train. She wore a veil of fingertip length falling from a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a fan shaped bouquet composed of a white orchid, white carnations and feathery white plumes.

Serving her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Ella Mikkelsen.
The bridesmaids were Miss Hildegard Toepel, Mrs. Elsie Sheen, and Mrs. Margaret Tistle. The girls all wore identical gowns of blue jersey with full pleated skirts. They carried fan shaped bouquets of pink carnations and wore matching flowers in their hair. Each wore a gold cross necklace, a gift from the bride.

Little Miss Betty Mae Tistle and Miss Ruthie Yrtima, nieces of the bride and groom, respectively, were flower girls. They wore long dresses of blue rayon fillefata and carried little flower filled baskets. Their dresses were made by Mrs. Norma Skerke.

Attending the groom were his brother, Wray Sheen, Jr., as best man and officers from the naval air station at Glenview as groom-smen. They were Lt. (jg) Richard Schramm, Lt. (jg) Bell and Ensign Arnold Kenneth Moeller, a nephew of the bride, was ring bearer and in little white ensign suit and wearing gold wings, a gift from the groom, he was a picture in miniature of the groom himself.

The bride's mother wore a becoming summer print dress and an orchid corsage. The groom's mother was unable to attend, being taken ill while visiting his sister in Washington, D. C. Her orchid was sent to her by the bride.

The wedding reception was held at the Rand Park Field House in Des Plaines on June 19, the date originally set for the wedding.
However the groom's graduation was delayed at the naval air school in Corpus Christi, Texas, and at the last minute he was unable to attend his own wedding on that date. Since the plans could not be changed at the last minute the three hundred guests enjoyed the dinner and reception and witnessed the actual wedding when it occurred this past weekend. Ensign Shean and his bride left for Jacksonville, Fla., his new post, on Sunday afternoon.

During vacation children's teeth can be checked and treat-studies. It is also the time when mutually appropriate appoint-

Dr. Morrison, in his address stressed the station of Evangelical Christianity as against Protestantism. He also asserted that the church has no apologies to make to any other organization of school of thought. That the heedless humanism of the giddy twenties and the despairing despair of the thirties have sobered man to seek a new way of life. That way, according to Dr. Morrison, is the way of the Christ-centered church seeking out a wayward child. The response to Dr. Morrison's address was enthusiastic.

From a temporal point of view the church has prospered. There is a tendency toward longer pastorates and toward a more stabilized economic position. Raises in salaries were evidenced throughout the 372 churches aggregating about $25,000.00. Over 2,000 new members were added to the church rolls and over 1,000 children were baptized. This the 105th year of Methodism in Northern Illinois, proved one of the most trying and at the same time the best.

The Rev. Milo J. Vondracek of the local Methodist church was returned to serve another year and reports that he wasn't assigned to a church, he was coming home to his people whom he has come to love. This applies to Methodists and non-Methodists alike.

Schaumburg to dedicate service plaque Sunday

Schaumburg will honor on Sunday the 31 boys of that township who are in the service of their country, with the dedication of an honor roll plaque.

Supervisor F. W. Pfingsten will introduce the speakers, who are Paul Carroll, senior vice commander of the 9th district of the American Legion of Arlington Heights and Rev. M. Behling, pastor Schaumburg Lutheran church.

A flag pole was recently erected on the Schramm corner in Schaumburg Center and a flag has been provided. The honor roll plaque as well as the flag pole and flag have been donated by patriotic citizens.

News of Northbrook

Northbrook camp will hold their regular meeting on Monday, July 12. All members are requested to attend.

Mrs. George Peters is still in the St. Francis hospital, and very ill.
Her many friends are hoping for a speedy recovery.

The W. P. Melzer family have been notified that their son, William (Skeesick) is in a New York hospital. He was wounded while in action in Africa.

Mrs. J. Augard and Mrs. Frieda Klaner were visitors at the home of Mrs. S. Schnad in Deerfield last Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Minnie Lauer spent the week-end with Mrs. Frank Roamer in Glenview.

Mrs. Emma Krieger has moved to her summer home at Lake Catharine, Antioch, Ill.

Mrs. Harry Olson and children are enjoying several weeks vacation in Virginia with her folks.

Mrs. C. Bergstedt entertained several of her neighbors, on last Wednesday, for the benefit of her church circle.

Mrs. Harry Roepeneck has been visiting her mother and other relatives in Iowa, for the past several weeks.

Mrs. W. Bohanan has returned from Virginia, after two weeks visit with her husband, who is stationed there. She also called on the E. Moores and Mrs. John Meier, who has been with her daughter,
for the past months.

Miss Marilyn Miller and Miss Bleumeser of Skokie, have returned from a two weeks vacation in Tennessee, where they visited relatives.

Mrs. F. Klauer had a pleasant day with relatives in Evanston last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nasen of Skokie were the guests of Mrs. Sintzel, last Sunday.

We are sorry to report that Lt.
Harry Roepeneck has been reported killed in action in Africa, on June 14. There will be a memorial mass on July 5, at St. Norberts, if arrangements can be made. Please phone Northbrook 12 for further details. The many friends of the Roepeneck family extend their most sincere sympathy. Lt. Roep-eneck is the first boy of the St.
Norbert parish and the second of this vicinity, Walter Poplum being the first.

This Week in Wheeling

Wheeling Days July 17, 18

It's time to begin inviting your friends to come to Wheeling on the week-end of July 17, 18, when the Chamber of Commerce and Fire Department are again sponsoring the annual home-coming as well as an occasion of home-coming as well fund-raising to benefit civic enterprizes. It needs the whole-hearted support of all loyal residents to make it a social and financial success. Be a promoter now and plan to give a hand when the time comes. A special feature this year is to be the dedication of an outdoor community honor roll for servicemen. The village has had such a roll for local men. In cooperation with the American Legion, plans have been completed to enlarge this roll to include men from the surrounding community not included elsewhere. Because the Wheeling Day celebration is a community rather than a village affair, it was decided this would be the most appropriate time to recognize service men from the entire area.

workers at the surgical dressing unit presented her with a hand bag as a birthday gift. The gift was an expression of appreciation for her untrifling efforts as chairman of the Wheeling Production Unit of the Red Cross. The time she has put in has been 100 per cent plus,
with attendance at all sessions,
plus many visits to headquarters.
Under her efficient leadership the unit, though small in size, has put out work of high quality.

Miss Betty Schmidt of Summit, Ill., is spending the vacation period with her aunt, Mrs. Robert Utpadel.

How electrical appliance dealers conserve vital materials

In devoting their time and skill to the adjusting and repairing of electric appliances, hundreds of electrical dealers throughout Northern Illinois are performing an important wartime service.

By extending the useful life of electric irons, washers, vacuum cleaners, toasters, coffeemakers and other time- and work-savers, these expert repairmen eliminate the necessity of manufacturing hundreds of thousands of new electric appliances. And the critical materials saved in this way are available for the production of tanks, ships and planes which are essential to victory on the land, on the sea and in the air.

Electricity has gone to war—don't waste it!

After determining cause of the trouble and completing necessary repairs, this service restores the vacuum cleaner. Restoring life of this appliance means the saving of critical materials.

Radio Testing is explained to a new employe who is being trained for radio repair work.
With radios working overtime the number of repairs has shown a marked increase.

The delicate mechanism of an electric clock is adjusted by this repairman. Often a simple adjustment is all that is necessary to put a clock back in good working condition.

The proof of the waffle iron is in the baking.
So this repairman tests the operation of the repaired iron by actually baking a waffle.
It looks like the iron is working perfectly.

Every day, electric irons, toasters, coffeemakers, waffle bakers, vacuum cleaners and other work-saving appliances are brought in to dealers for adjustment and repair.

OBITUARIES

John T. Meyer

John Theophil Meyer passed away at his home, 407 W. Wing st., Arlington Heights, on Sunday, June 27. He was born near Basel, Switzerland, March 23, 1875 and was a graduate of the University of Geneva. He also taught languages ten years before coming to this country.

He was married September 4, 1909, to Maude LaBundy of Chicago, who, with a daughter, Marion Edman, survives him.

Funeral services and interment Town of Maine cemetery, June 29.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy in the passing of our beloved husband and father.

Mrs. John T. Meyer and daughter, Marion.

Ervin Wolthausen

Ervin F. Wolthausen, 44, a veteran of the Navy service in World War I and a former resident of Elgin, died unexpectedly of a heart attack Thursday evening at his home in Chicago.

He was the brother of Mrs. Gladys Stadler of Arlington Heights.

Services were conducted Monday afternoon at 2 from Petersen's funeral chapel, Fullerton and Kostner aves., Chicago, with burial in the Woodlawn cemetery.

Emilie Becker

Emilie Becker, nee Meyer, was born June 7, 1871, in Bloomingdale township, was baptized and received her education at the Rodenburg Ev. Lutheran church and was confirmed at the Rodenburg Ev. Lutheran church by Rev. H. Grupe.

September 23, 1894, she was united in marriage to Mr. Otto Becker by Rev. Theo Heine at Rodenburg; after their marriage this couple made their home on a farm in Bloomingdale township and for the past 42 years at their present location in Roselle. Mr. Becker preceded his wife in death on April 25, 1913.

After a lingering illness Mrs. Becker passed away, Saturday, June 26, 1943, at a Chicago hospital at the age of 72 years and 19 days.

She leaves to mourn her departure, two daughters, Mrs. Clara Thies, Mrs. Viola Voelz; five grandchildren; four brothers, Adolph of Bloomingdale, Albert, Sam, and Charles Meyer all of Roselle.

A son, Mr. Emil Becker passed away in 1940.

Funeral services were on Tuesday, June 29, 1943, at 1:30 p. m. at her home in Roselle, and at 2:00 p. m. at the Roselle Ev. Lutheran church at Roselle; Rev. Mehler officiating; interment was in the Roselle cemetery.

Married sixty years; live on same farm

MR. AND MRS. PLASS

She is 78. He is 87. Both were born within two miles of Addison, and have lived there all their lives. This couple is Mr. and Mrs. Louis Plass who celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on June 8, with an open house on their farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Plass have four children, Henry of Addison, Ernest who is at home, Mrs. Peter Backhaus, and Mrs. Louis I'ene, three grandchildren, and one great-grandchild. They were married at the Zion church, Bensenville.

The farm was purchased from the government by Mr. Plass' father 75 years ago, and the tracks of the Illinois Central Railroad run through the center of it.

Mr. Plass recalls that as a boy their house was only one room, but as the family grew, so did the house. The boys slept in a loft, and he remembers waking up one winter morning with an extra blanket over him — one of snow that had fallen during the night and had come through the roof.

Now at the age of 87 Mr. Plass still enjoys working on the farm every day.

Elmer Plass, 621 N. State rd. Arlington Heights, and his sister, Miss Lillian Plass, attended the anniversary. Their father was the only brother of Louis Plass.

Evangelical church dedicates service flag Sunday

In conjunction with their regular Sunday morning services, St. John Evangelical and Reformed church will dedicate a new service flag, July 4. The pastor, Rev. William Kampfenkel will preach on "The Four Freedoms and God."

Another feature of the dedication ceremony will be the singing of "God Bless America" by Mr. Ronald Turek. All relatives of service men are especially invited to attend.

Cubs give dads real workout at baseball

If you saw an unusual number of cripples around town last weekend, that was the Den Dads you were seeing that played in the ball game last Friday night. They challenged the Webelos, the top team of the Cubs to a game and almost had reason to regret it. Some of the men thought it could be won with one hand. Chuck Revenaugh didn't wear any belt and when he tried to catch a hot fly one handed he found it didn't work out so good and then in running bases and trying to beat the throws back from the outfield, well you can imagine what almost happened when he started trying to swing both arms.

Johnny Jones wished he had kept his waist line after he tried to bend down for a few low throws from the pitcher. After a lot of groaning and creaking of muscles the Den Dads managed to beat the boys but not without a good workout. The boys have a game every Tuesday night and if you want to see some good softball come out and watch them.

The annual outing and picnic of the Cubs was attended by over a hundred boys and members of their families and a wonderful time was had by all.

OES girl's night called big success

The much anticipated event of the year for the members of the O.E.S. Girl's club of Arlington Heights Chapter took place Thursday evening, June 24. It is customary for the president of the club to serve as worthy matron, namely Winifred Schumacher who chose as her worthy patron for the evening Harold Hastings, associate patron of the chapter. The officers of the chapter formed as escort for Winifred presenting her with a gift also flowers from the chapter and was graciously greeted in song by the soloist. The other guest officers were as follows:

Jessie Ehret, A.M.
Raoul Peeters, P.W.P. of the chapter, A.P.
Adeline Wille, secretary.
Katherine Hines, treasurer.
Virginia Holtz, conductress.
Violet Bohm, A. Cond.
Evelyn Bohm, Chap.
Irene Jasper, Mar.
Carla Ehret, P.W.M. Org.
Ruth Bostrom, member of Alice chapter, Chicago, Adah.
Myrtle Frey, grand lecturer, Ruth.
Dorothy Hauff, Esther.
Lydia Hausam, P.W.M. of the chapter, Martha.
Inez Sharp, P.W.M. of the chapter, Electa.
Helen Schmidt, Warder.
Charles Peters, Sentinel, Sentinel.
Gladys McEuen, soloist.
Elmer Crane, color bearer.

A genuine fraternal greeting was extended to all the officers as well as the members and visitors by the worthy matron, Gertrude Milligan and worthy patron, William L. Milligan. Lovely baskets of garden flowers perfumed the hall and such a friendly spirit was exemplified no one seemed to be aware of the warmth of the evening air. The following were escorted and accorded the honors due them: Members of Grand Chapter committees, Cecilia Hausam, Eligibility, Blanche C. Dick, Membership Loyalty, Maybelle C. Jasper, of Credentials. The members were happy and surprised when the Associate Matron introduced the worthy matron, a member of the Page committee of the Grand chapter. She was presented with a gift from the chapter and best wishes from the officers and members.

Myrtle L. Frey, G.L., Georgiana Pankonin, P.W.M. of Arlington Heights Chapter and mother of the Girl's club, was escorted and presented with flowers from the club and invited to a seat in the east.

Also escorted were Lillie Jahn, P. W. M. of Palatine chapter, Frances Thorson, Florence Luckner, Carla Ehret, P.W.M. of Arlington Heights chapter, Grace Turk of Sunshine chapter, Elmer Crane, P.W.P., Arlington Heights chapter. Emily Schumacher, mother of the acting worthy matron was escorted as the guest of honor and also introduced as a bride of 25 years. The wedding march was played, bridal bouquet presented from the chapter and the soloist rendered an appropriate song. Several girls from other girls clubs in Chicago, were introduced from Alice chapter.

A special installation was held to install the newly elected conductress, Lillian Wolf, Ruth Lloyd having resigned due to ill health. Gertrude Milligan officiated as the installing officer and Maybelle Jasper as installing marshal. Congratulations were extended to the new officer as well as all the other guests.

Each guest expressed their happiness and pleasure for courtesies extended to them by the worthy matron and worthy patron and the chapter. At the close of the meeting the guests departed to the dining room where delicious refreshments were served by Elsie Kurtz and her committee. The table decorations were garden flowers very artistically arranged.

Camp grounds assembly to open

The annual Summer Assembly Session at the Des Plaines Methodist Camp Grounds will begin this Sunday, July 4, with special services. The Arlington Heights Methodist church choir will sing with Elizabeth Frye Carr as soloist at the opening service that afternoon.

The assembly will continue thru July 18 with afternoon and evening services to be held daily. Prominent Methodist speakers have been obtained, and the meetings are open to the public.

The Camp Grounds opened for its 34th season in April and will remain so until October. The regular program of activities will go on as usual with the children's camp session, beginning August 1, as one of the most popular features.

Local man married to Elmwood Park girl

Dorothy Ebert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Ebert of Elmwood Park and Victor Krueger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl W. Krueger of Arlington Heights, were united in marriage on Saturday, June 26, at 7:45 p. m. in the Westwood Lutheran church of Elmwood Park.

The bride wore for her wedding a bridal gown of white lace with a long train. She wore a fingertip veil falling from a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a bride's bouquet of white roses and sweet peas.

La Verne Ebert, the sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a gown of yellow organza and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Ardell Krueger, the sister of the groom served as bridesmaid. She wore a gown of pink organza. She carried a bouquet of blue carnations.

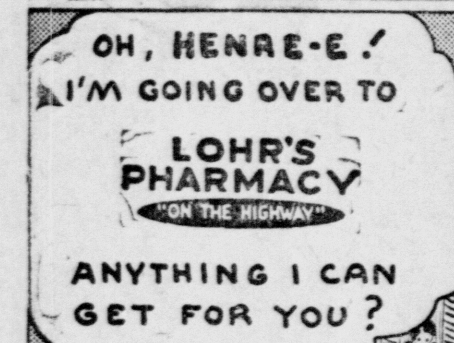

Loretta Henk served also as a bridesmaid and wore a gown of aqua organza. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Harvey Bruescher, the cousin of the groom, served as the best man. Robert Bauer and Arthur Koehn served as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a flowered gown. She wore a corsage of red and white carnations. The groom's mother wore a flowered dress with a corsage of white carnations.

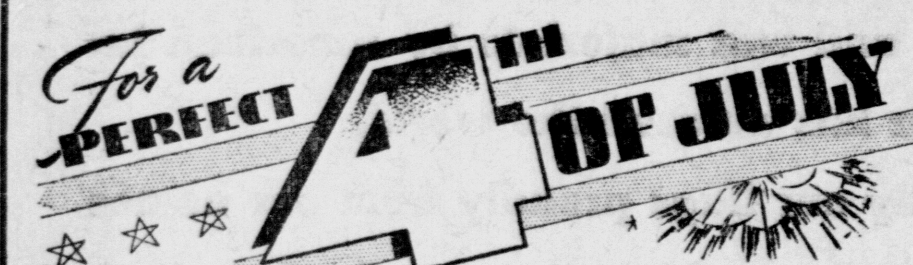

The reception was held at the V.F.W. hall in Des Plaines. A buffet supper followed the evening of dancing.

When the young couple return from their honeymoon, they will make their home with the groom's parents, where the groom is engaged in farming.

Helen Marshall Elmer Engel wed

Miss Helen Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Marshall of Bensenville, became the bride of Mr. Elmer Engel, son of Mrs. Fred Engel, also of Bensenville, on Saturday, June 26. The wedding took place at four o'clock at the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church with Rev. W. H. Mehlberg performing the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore for her wedding, a gown of white chiffon and lace with a long train. She wore a long veil of net and lace which was held in place with a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Emma Quandt, sister of the groom, served as matron of honor and was dressed in pink chiffon and carried a bouquet of pink roses and blue delphiniums.

Mr. Leonard Marshall, brother of the bride, was best man, and had a white carnation boutonniere.

The bridesmaids were Miss Ethlyn Rubin, cousin of the groom, who was dressed in pink, carrying pink roses; Ruth Eklow and Dorothy Grabowski, both schoolmates of the bride, who were dressed in blue and yellow and carried pink and yellow roses. All of the girls were gowned alike in dresses of chiffon, fashioned with full skirts and wore roses in their hair to match their bouquets.

Their attendants were Mr. Harold Marshall, brother of the bride, Mr. Edward Engel, brother of the groom, and Mr. La Verne Engel, cousin of the groom. They all had white carnation boutonnieres, while the groom's was a white rose.

The little flower girl was Evelyn Blume, a second cousin to the bride, who was dressed in a blue and white print organza, and she carried a basket of gladioli.

Buddy Quandt, a nephew of the groom, was the ring bearer and carried the rings to the altar on a white satin pillow.

Mrs. Edward Stoeckig of Roselle, sang a solo before the ceremony. The bride's mother and the groom's mother, both wore silk print dresses and wore corsages of white carnations.

After the ceremony, a wedding supper was served to the bridal party, and at 8 p. m. a reception was held at Franz's hall for about 150 guests. A buffet luncheon, led by the bride and groom, was served at midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Farnham of Los Angeles, California, were week-end guests of the Hausman family.

Homer Byrds leave for Indiana farm

Mr. and Mrs. Homer J. Byrd and their daughter, Virginia Lee, left Saturday for their farm in Indiana, where they will remain for several weeks. The farm is located 25 miles south of O'Fallon and near the Wabash river.

Within three miles of the Byrds' farm is one of the nation's largest game preserves containing several hundred acres of woods, a lake, a zoo and a watch tower from which visitors can see all of the surrounding country. This tower is a favorite haunt of both Mr. Byrd and Ginny.

Gene Stratton Porter's famous "Limerlost" is also located only a few miles away.

Since Mr. Byrd's work takes him through the territory near the farm, in Indiana and Ohio, he will be able to have "week-end vacations" there with his family. However, he will not be able to spend too much time on the farm since, as national business manager of the American Cosmetics National Association, he will be spending much time in Chicago preparing for the annual show to be held September 12 and 13, at the Morrison Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Olson have been visiting relatives in Bristol, Indiana, this past week.

Dr. Edwin Baumann was vacationing last week, but spent it in the village. He and Mrs. Baumann made a few trips to Chicago traveling, patriotically, by train.

Corinne McCarthy and her mother have just returned from a two weeks' trip to Mississippi.

Mrs. Ernest Decker of Chicago had dinner with Katherine Hines and spent the night in the village last Thursday. She also attended Girls' Night at Eastern Star.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of S. State rd., entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Reese and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frazer and their daughter, Kay, all of Berwyn, at Sunday dinner.

Mr. Otto Schwartz returned Sunday from a week's fishing trip at Land O' Lakes, Wisconsin, where, according to him, the fishing was fine.

Miss Ann Schulze of Evanston, spent the week-end in Arlington Heights visiting friends.

Mr. Fred Rascher of 513 S. Evergreen is ill, and has been for the past several weeks.

Local man promoted by airlines company

Robert Meyer, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Meyer of Arlington Heights, has received a promotion in the American Airlines, Inc. He is now chief control-message supervisor for the company in Chicago.

Mr. Meyer is a graduate of the Arlington Heights high school, but has been living in Chicago since his marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Rector entertained Mr. and Mrs. Walter Treleven and family and Mother Baur from Oak Park last week-end. The party was in honor of Mrs. Rector's birthday.

Mrs. Margaret Colvin of Sherwood, returned Wednesday from a four weeks' trip to Springfield, Missouri, and Memphis, Tennessee, where she has been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Carl Militzer, with Mr. and Mrs. Woody Hovrage, is vacationing at Chetek, Wisconsin. They are staying at the Pokegama Inn.

Jimmy Kledhans, the son of Mrs. Florence Kledhans, has recovered from a case of "Victory" (formerly known as German) measles.

Mrs. Martha Meyer, Arlington Heights and Mrs. Florence Parkhurst and Mrs. Gertrude Smith, Palatine, held offices of the Barrington Rebekah Lodge, Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Niemeyer, S. State rd., are the parents of a baby girl born Sunday night at the Northwestern hospital, Des Plaines.

Mrs. Alex Angeloff of Chicago visited at the home of her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Angel Angeloff here in the village for a few days.

June 23 Mrs. Frederick Lauterburg celebrated her birthday with a dinner party to which several guests were invited. After dinner the guests played the piano and sang. It was an especially enjoyable occasion because her husband, Pfc. Fritz Lauterburg, was home on furlough from Camp Gruber, Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Farnham of Los Angeles, California, were week-end guests of the Hausman family.

A surprise party was held last Thursday in honor of Myrtle Lauterburg's birthday. Twenty-five guests, including relatives and friends, enjoyed a sociable evening.

This month's party of Arlington telephone operators was a scavenger hunt held last Wednesday evening. The committee consisted of the Misses Esther Stelling, Meta Schioman, Betty Tonne, and Mrs. Marge Adam. Prizes were awarded to the lucky winners and a consolation prize to the losers. After the hunt the girls enjoyed refreshments.

Maynie Folkman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August L. Folkman, is ill this week with asthma.

Mrs. Willard Bahatchet spent Saturday in Chicago at a luncheon and bridge party.

New residents of Searsdale are Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Gilman and their four children, former residents of Western Springs. They moved here last Friday and are living at 409 Bristol Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Olson and their family spent the week-end visiting relatives in Milwaukee. In order to drive up to Milwaukee, the Olsons had been saving their gas coupons for a long time, and will now be "stay-at-homes" until the new rationing period starts.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Carah of Sherwood, entertained a group of their friends at supper on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Forby and family of Evanston were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Kent.

Judith Ann Friedrich of Des Plaines, spent a few days in the village, visiting her little friend, Barbara Ann Ewert.

Marilyn Franke and Laura Fritz are spending the week at the 4-H club girls' camp at Rockford.

Mr. Charles O'Hagan had two of his sons and their families as his guests Sunday to help him celebrate his birthday. Arlene Mary O'Hagan of Chicago stayed over for a few days' visit.

Mrs. L. V. Shackley (the former Violet Buncik) and her daughter, Sharon, are now residing at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Buncik. Since Mr. Shackley is in the army, his family plan to remain here for the duration.

Mrs. Mervin Fink, the former Betty Vetter, is vacationing at home this week and next. In addition her mother, Mrs. Mary Vetter is also vacationing.

Harriet Roney is spending her vacation in the north woods. She left last Friday for a week of "roughing it."

Marian Krause, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Krause, is visiting with relatives on the Flambeau River in Northern Wisconsin.

Mrs. Arthur H. Gieseke is proudly wearing the naval air corps wings of her son, Will, a newly commissioned second lieutenant in the Marine Air Corps. It need hardly be said that she is also wearing a broad smile.

A family gathering was held Sunday evening in honor of Pfc. Harold Dobbins, who was home on furlough. He has been in the army since April, and has been stationed at Camp Grant, near Rockford. Pfc. Dobbins has now left the village for a new camp, as yet unknown.

American Legion auxiliary notes

Merle Guild Unit 208, the American Legion Auxiliary, will hold a business meeting at Legion Hall on Tuesday evening, July 6.

Last Tuesday was too warm for comfort under the best of circumstances. In the morning a group of nine auxiliary members entered Mrs. Olson's neat and spotless home, bringing with them three portable sewing machines and bags of rags. These women who worked all day in the noise of whirling machines, tearing clothes with the accompanying dust and unbearable heat should have at least one leaf added to their crown of glory, "seems like." The pot-luck luncheon was good and satisfying and gave a welcome pause in the day's work. Mrs. May Wisersky took the balls of carpet rags to Hines hospital.

More Needed for Civilians
Brookings Institution reports that 28,000,000 new and used automobiles now are available; but, if all cars are driven an average of 10,000 miles a year, there will be only 10,000,000 cars by the end of 1943, far too few for essential civilian transportation.

AMERICA'S ANSWER! We'll Keep It Flying

CELEBRATE THE FOURTH
IN ARLINGTON
PARADE — BASEBALL
DANCING — AMUSEMENTS
FIREWORKS

THE Fourth of July to all Americans is synonymous with Freedom. This year, 1943, its meaning takes on a more immediate concern. Our country, with 26 other nations whose flags appear on this page, is fighting a war for self-preservation. We have come a long way from the confused and uncertain days of Pearl Harbor. Today we are a determined, united people, with the greatest developed war-making power of any nation in the world. We no longer fear for the future; it is mathematically certain that Victory will be ours. This fourth of July every one of us must get a thrill from the thought of being an American.

This Fourth of July the Flag flies high. On every battlefield America's incomparable airforce has rung up smashing victories; on the Seven Seas, the American Navy true to its great tradition has successfully met every challenge; and in every battle where the American army has fought, it has severely defeated the enemy. On the home front the production of ships, planes and war materials by American industry and labor has amazed the world.

Therefore, let's fly our flags proudly from our homes and stores, telling the world that we are firmly united, cognizant of our great strength, and resolute in our decision to defeat our enemies and preserve our freedom.

SUE FOR DAMAGES IN MT. PROSPECT ACCIDENT

Albert and Dora Seal and Glen Sizelove have sued Gertrude and Leonard Foly in Superior court for a total of $50,000 damages for injuries they claim to have sustained in a collision of their cars Oct. 24, 1941, at the junction of routes 83 and 63 near Mt. Prospect. They claim the car they were riding in was hit by the Foly car which failed to heed the stop sign at the junction thereby causing the accident. Dora Seal asks $50,000 damages, Albert Seal $25,000 and Sizelove $15,000.

INJURY SUIT
Sue has been filed in Circuit court by Charles Cerniglia, a minor, through his father Frank Cerniglia, against W. T. Davis for $25,000 damages for the boy's injury in an automobile accident December 21, 1941. The boy was riding in a car that was hit by the Davis car at the intersection of routes 58 and 53 and he was seriously injured.

NORTHBROOK
The village of Northbrook has filed suit in Circuit court against Albert Maen and R. W. Krueger for $500 damages for wrecking a traffic control signal at Waukegan and Shermer roads, April 15 last. The complaint states that the cars of these parties were in collision at that intersection that date and as a result the traffic control system was wrecked.

SUIT FILED
The Rock Road Construction Co. has filed suit in Superior Court against Delhi C. Bramble, doing business as Sally's Restaurant of Skokie Road, Skokie, to recover a balance of $635 they allege is due on a contract to pave part of the property.

Boy Scout camp to open July 11

Scouts of the Northwest Suburban Council are looking forward to the 1943 season at Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta which opens for campers on July 11. Early the morning of July 5, the Junior and Senior staff, together with Scout Executive Huntington will leave for Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta.

The staff includes Bill O'Brien of Troop 24, Park Ridge, and Elmer Thorsen of Troop 7, Arlington Heights, as Senior members and James Miller, William Thompson, and Erwin Johnson of Troop 11, John Burgeson and Dick Soderberg of Troop 2 and John Klocke of Troop 24 of Park Ridge as junior members and Elvin Hoch of Troop 13, Des Plaines, as a special junior officer.

The members of the staff will work until the regular opening period setting up camp. This will include putting up tents at the camp, getting the nautical unit ready for occupancy, painting boats and waterfront equipment, putting waterfront equipment in Dyer Lake and cleaning up of the shower house and mess hall.

When Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta opens on July 11 it will be completely ready to receive the campers. Camp this year will stress particularly activities which build a Scout physically and give him self-reliance. For this reason waterfront activities will receive special emphasis as will the overnight camping and hiking program.

Wills Filed

The will of Edward Tobin who died in Chicago May 19, just probated provides that a vault in a cemetery be built from his $5,000 estate if not already built and that the residue of the estate go to his two children, Edward F. Tobin, of Morton Grove, and Pearl McCrory, of Park Ridge.

Robert T. Porter, of Northfield, is one of three heirs to the $54,000 estate left by his late mother, Mrs. Maud Porter, who died in Evanston April 21. She left her estate equally to her three sons who were also named executors of her estate.

The will of the late Fred Zoellick, who died in Elmhurst, April 16, leaving $4,000 in personal property as estimated for Probate Clerk Frank Lyman, has just been admitted to probate in Chicago. He ordered it divided equally between his ten children one of which is Herman Zoellick of Palatine, with the heirs of any deceased child taking the parent's share. The other heirs are: Louise Schuetler, Des Plaines; Marie Pasvogel, Barrington; Edward and Ralph Zoellick, Chicago; Hulda Fiertag, Chicago; George Zoellick, Roselle; Fred Zoellick, Jr., R. I. Elgin; and Richard Zoellick, Bartlett. Also LeRoy Zoellick, grandson, Roselle.

Edward M. Clark, who died in Skokie March 10, left a $2,000 estate. His will gives his stamp collection and $500 to Olive Holbeck, of Skokie and the residue of his estate to Marjorie Barnes, of Skokie.

BANKRUPTCY

Anton Wagner, Sr., of Glenview, has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States Circuit court. He lists $1,464 liabilities and $179 assets.

BANKRUPTCY PETITION

Red Wings lose to Chi. Firemen; Cragins July 4th

The Chicago Firemen nosed out the Red Wings Sunday in the finest played baseball game of the season at Recreation Park by a score of 2 to 1.

The brilliant pitching duel put on by Geo. Schaefer of the locals and Jake Dowling of the Firemen was marred only by some costly errors by the Red Wing players which lost the game for the local boys.

Dowling allowed only six hits, two of which were made by Ed. Wahl and two by Geo. Schaefer. The Firemen only got five hits off Schaefer.

Don Peeters played his last game with the Red Wings for the duration and the team will miss him a great deal. Don enlisted in the Navy. Good luck Don Peeters.

Next Sunday the Cragins will be the visitors and it should be a swell game.

We would like to know what the idea was of putting in a pinch-runner in the ninth inning last Sunday. Any guy that can go from first to third on a single does not need a runner in the writer's opinion.

On Monday, July 5, we travel to Glen Ellyn. We invite all Red Wing Boosters to come along and root for the boys.

Friday night, July 2, the Red Wings will play a night game at Glenview. Game starts at 8:30. You are all invited to Glenview.

Set aside August 1, that's the day the Red Wings play Camp Grant at Arlington Heights.

Gems of thought

Freedom Through Government
All the distinctive features and superiority of our republican institutions are derived from the teachings of Scripture.

—Everett.
The very idea of the power and right of the people to establish government presupposes the duty of every individual to obey the established government.

—Washington.
Patriotism is a blind and irrational impulse unless it is founded on a knowledge of the blessings we are called to secure and the privileges we propose to defend.

—Robert Hall.
We must accept the disciplines of democracy as well as its freedoms. Discipline from without flourishes when discipline from within grows weak.

—Harry Woodburn Chase.
Only free people can hold their purpose and their honor steady to a common end, and prefer the interest of mankind to any narrow interest of their own.

—Woodrow Wilson.
Discerning the rights of man, we cannot fail to foresee the doom of all oppression. Slavery is not the legitimate state of man. God made man free.

—Mary Baker Eddy.

Deficiencies in iodine may cause still-born pigs

When litters of pigs are born dead or when some pigs in a litter are hairless or show immature hof development, the possibility of iodine deficiency should not be overlooked, warns the department of animal pathology and hygiene, University of Illinois College of Agriculture.
Iodine-deficient areas are known to exist in the Great Lakes region, especially in such neighboring states as Wisconsin and Michigan. On Illinois farms where pigs have suffered from an iodine deficient disease, the losses occurred in the winter and spring months.
Iodine deficiency in newly born pigs may be prevented largely by feeding small amounts of potassium iodine to sows in the feed or drinking water during the last two months of pregnancy.
A dose of two level teaspoonfuls of potassium iodine (approximately 10 grams) dissolved in water and thoroughly mixed with the grain or added to the drinking water once a week is sufficient for 50 sows (three grains a sow a week). One-fifth teaspoonful, or one gram weekly is sufficient for five sows.

Foundations of cement best for farm buildings

Farm building foundations damaged by the recent floods may be replaced with a concrete mixture of cement, sand and gravel or with concrete blocks, since these are noncorrosive materials and are well suited for this purpose says D. G. Carter, of the department of agricultural engineering, University of Illinois College of Agriculture.
Good masonry foundations prolong the life of building because they insure uniform distribution of weight on the soil, prevent settlement and cracking of walls and retain the structure in good condition at a low maintenance cost.
Concrete foundations and basement walls are either of precast units or concrete cast-in-place. Masonry construction in the form of concrete blocks is often less expensive than solid concrete, which requires forms for construction. It is a common practice to use concrete footings for all types of foundation walls, since they provide increased bearing area on the soil to insure against settlement.
A booklet, "Foundation Walls and Basements of Concrete," may be obtained upon request from the department of agricultural engineering, University of Illinois, Urbana.

Several methods recommended for wall repair

High water and roof leaks have combined to do extensive damage to plastered walls and in wall finishes in some homes, but the repair of this damage is not difficult if recommended methods are followed, according to Deane G. Carter, professor of Agricultural engineering, University of Illinois College of Agriculture.
In the first place, the cause of the trouble must be eliminated if possible. This applies especially to roof leaks or seepage of rain water through walls and around doors and windows. If the damage was from flood water, final repair should not be attempted until the house is thoroughly dry.
Plaster that has crumbled or cracked badly or which has come loose from the lath should be chiseled out and patched. Loose lath should be nailed before replastering. Usually only a part of a wall or a good size patch will need to be replaced. For this work, it is advisable to employ a skilled plasterer and use high-grade material to make the repair job as good as new. After two or three weeks, the gypsum plastered patches can be calcimined, painted or repapered to match the rest of the wall. Badly stained walls may be redecorated by any of the common methods. However, a sizing coat will probably be necessary to cover the stains and prevent them from showing through.
If an entire ceiling, room wall or the lower portion of walls have to be replaced, it may be advisable to consider other methods of repair instead of replastering. For low-cost renewal of the wall surface, ordinary wallboard or sheet plaster may be applied over the old lath and plaster and painted or calcimined. Sheet plaster is preferable to wallboard if the surface is to be papered. Among the newer surfaces that can be put on over the old wall are insulation boards, insulation squares or one of the numerous panels. If suitable matched board paneling is available, the dressed wood may be stained and waxed to give an attractive wall finish.
For kitchen and bath, linoleum or some of the waterproofed factory finished panels may be used. Direction for applying and finishing the various materials can be obtained at the dealer's store. The lower part of the walls in the kitchen and bathrooms, to a height of about four feet, should be waterproof and washable. In other rooms, a wainscot to a height of three and one-half or four feet is frequently used and is often preferred for the decorative effect. Thus if only the lower part of the wall is in need of repair the addition of a wainscot offers a simple and economical solution.

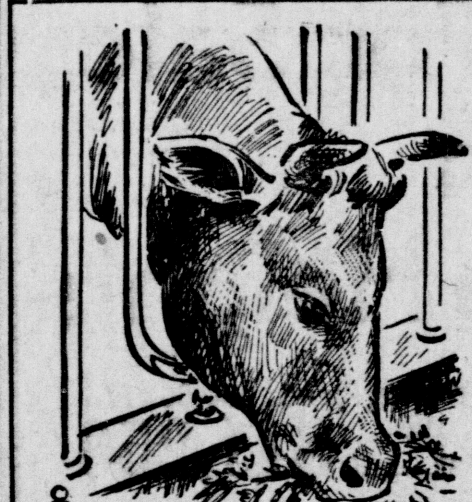

Legion auxiliary recruits WAACS

The American Legion Auxiliary launched a WAAC recruiting drive throughout Cook county July 1.
The Auxiliary has established a quota of 2,000 signed applications for membership in the WAAC during the month of July. This total number has been broken down into individual quotas for each of the 151 units of the Legion Auxiliary in Cook county. Auxiliary members plan to make a house to house canvass of their neighborhoods, if necessary, in order to attain the quotas.
The project has the full backing and support of the Cook County Council of the American Legion.

Mr. Marshall Balling has enrolled for a summer course at Northwestern University.
The Messdams H. S. and H. L. Bingham entertained cousins from Chicago and Milwaukee—the fore part of the week.

Green pastures help cut losses in chicks, birds

"One of the best ways to cut down losses in chicks and growing birds is to keep them healthy by providing them with a good grass range or pasture," says E. P. Singen, assistant in poultry husbandry, University of Illinois College of Agriculture.
Green food is of utmost importance for growing stock, and a good stand of alfalfa, clover or bluegrass will aid materially in reducing feed costs. A clover range is probably best, but bluegrass or alfalfa followed by a succession of young oats or wheat will produce excellent results.

Well-feathered chicks seven to eight weeks of age may be moved to their summer quarters or range shelter now. Range shelters consisting only of a roof and wire sides are unexcelled for the development of healthy, vigorous stock. They provide a cool, well-ventilated roosting place, yet afford protection from rain and predatory animals.
Eight inches of roosting space should be allowed for each bird in the shelter. Mash hoppers and drinking fountains should be placed on the range and not in the shelter.
Information about feeding and other problems confronting chicken raisers is contained in the pamphlet, "Brooding and Rearing Chicks," prepared by Singen and available from country farm advisers or upon request to the College of Agriculture, Urbana.

300,000 women needed for farms

Critical shortage of workers threatens crop production

Any woman who can devote week-ends, one or two days a week, a vacation period, or full-time to helping on a farm . . . anyone who can aid local canners in processing the harvested crops . . . anyone who is serious about working hard to help win the war on the home front . . . is urgently needed.

About 300,000 women are expected to do rush harvest and other short period farm work this year as a part of the U. S. Crop Corps. Another 60,000 women will be enrolled in the Women's Land Army, helping out on farms for a month or more.

Since the start of the national defense program in 1940 nearly 3 million persons of working age have left agriculture. A critical shortage of farm workers threatens crop production when farmers have been asked to grow the biggest food supply in history. Farmers need every part-time or full-time worker they can get.

There are many farm jobs which city and town women do not do well, with very little training. In the home vegetable garden, inexperienced workers can soon learn to prepare soil, plant seed, and do necessary weeding and hoeing. When vegetables are ripe, there is picking, packing, and sometimes grading to be done.

On poultry farms there are many routine chores which are easily learned and performed — feeding and watering the birds, gathering, candling, crating, and grading eggs. Egg records must be kept, the incubator and brooder looked after, and chickens prepared for market — all these jobs can be done by women and girls.

In the orchard and vineyard women can drive the spray truck, help in pruning trees, pick and grade fruit, pack it in boxes or barrels, and truck it to market. In the fields women become expert at handling such machinery as harrows, disks, fertilizer spreaders, mowing machines, rakes, or hay loaders.

Need Housekeepers Too
Women who are keeping house now can be of invaluable service in the farm home. Volunteers for work in farm homes can do much for the war program by releasing an experienced farm woman for work in the field. This is familiar work — taking care of children, cooking meals, cleaning the house, canning and drying surplus fruits and vegetables, marketing, doing necessary sewing, or keeping farm and home records.

Women have many assets as farm workers. They are accurate — a good trait for recording, weighing, grading, and candling eggs. They work with dexterity and speed which makes them useful for grading, cleaning, packing, and tying produce. And women have patience, the patience necessary in doing routine farm jobs such as weeding gardens, gathering eggs, milking.

Those women who enter farm work will find that scientific agriculture — plant and animal breeding, plant and animal disease work — is intriguing; there is a great

Shells

Bad news for the Axis was the recent announcement that an improved process of shell-making enables American war plants to turn out six 155 mm. shells from the same quantity of steel which formerly produced only five of the same size. The improved shell-making process is an adaptation of the British roller draw bench, introduced here by the streamlined train manufacturer in 1940. It makes possible the production of 155 mm. shells from a 119 pound billet instead of the 150 pound billet formerly used.

Speed limit

Police in Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin have been asked to arrest civilian drivers for commercial driveway companies transporting army vehicles who violate the national 35 mile an hour speed limit.

A similar request was made in a letter of May 5 concerning Army drivers, who are expressly forbidden to exceed the speed limit except in cases of emergency.

Letters

"The soldier wants the intimate details of life back home," says Chaplain (Major) Alvin L. McKnight of Cleveland, Mississippi, who has just returned from the United States after five months of duty on Guadalcanal. "That the girl two doors down has taken a war plant job, or that the couple across the street have had a baby may make your letter read like a personal newspaper, but that's what he wants. By all means, don't tell the soldier about your troubles. He has enough of his own. Domestic troubles affect the morale of the soldier at the front more than anything else. Something to live for and go back to is what keeps a soldier going. It is what gives a man fight. Home life is everything to the man at the front."

Baby carriages

Baby carriages to be made in the current quarter have been decreased to 289,369, compared to the original schedule of 317,777. However, strollers, walkers, and sulkies have been increased from 163,500 to 233,500. The demand for baby carriages in 1943 is expected to be 900,000.

Cigarettes

Any rumors that OPA plans to reduce or eliminate cigarette brands or brand names, or to provide for only one cigarette, "are absolutely baseless," Price Administrator Prentiss M. Brown declared recently.

deal of satisfaction in results; and, best of all, by doing farm work, they will be aiding in feeding the United Nations.

Stickers

Fancy trimmings on the windshields and windshields of automobiles are becoming the new wartime fashion. Only a few years ago all safety engineers were a unit in condemning stickers on the windows or windshields of motor vehicles and numerous measures were introduced in various legislatures, including Illinois, prohibiting stickers on any motor vehicle that might become a menace through obstruction of the driver's vision.

War conditions seem to have altered the situation. For now automobiles are required by law to carry a number of stickers. The United States requires one for the $5.00 use tax and also one or more giving public notice of whether the motorist holds an "A," "B," or "C" gasoline ration. Many local ordinances require display of a vehicle tax sticker.

While not ordered by law, many war plants demand that their employees who use their cars for transportation must carry identification stickers to speed these vehicles when driving into the plant's parking lot.

No specific directions have been given as to the proper location of all these various window trimmings, except that they should be placed as to cause the least possible obstruction to the driver's vision. It has been suggested that the Federal use tax sticker and war plant identification pass be at the top center of the windshield, the gasoline ration stickers on the rear left window near the gasoline tank within easy view of the gasoline station operator, and all others in the low right hand corner of the windshield.

Loans

More than $6,800,000,000 in loans by private lending institutions financing the construction, purchase, or repair of approximately 5,400,000 homes, have been insured by the Federal Housing Administration since its establishment on June 27, 1934. It was announced as the FHA marked its ninth anniversary. About one-half of the loans have been insured since the start of the war production program in the summer of 1940.

'Tomorrow'

A "kitchen of tomorrow" in which heat from the refrigerator compressor that keeps food cold will be utilized to dry dish towels . . . Homes, made on assembly lines that can be loaded on trucks and moved to new locations when you have a falling-out with the neighbors . . . Kitchen cabinets of molded plywood inspired by today's fast mosquito bombers . . . Men's pants with cuffs on them again.

War plants

War industrial plants financed with public and private funds had a total value of $19,339,000,000 by the end of March, says the War Production Board. This includes all projects for which contracts have been let since June, 1940.

Tires

One dollar apiece is the maximum price that OPA has set for low-quality used passenger car tires which now are permitted for the first time. Maximum additions to this price are provided when tires are given emergency repairs before being sold.

Small business

The mounting problem of how small business can be saved from destruction because the country is preoccupied with war production apparently is headed for a solution, after some two years of abortive attempts to set up safeguards. The American Bankers association has agreed to assist small concerns to fit themselves into the production of both war materials and essential civilian goods. Details have not yet been worked out, but some of the advantages are obvious. Often it is the local banker who knows the problems of individual communities better than anyone else. Moreover, they know the people who are in business, and since the ABA has decided to decentralize its program, this will be of prime importance. The accusation has been made that the small enterprises which have received the most help from Washington have been those which could make the most noise. The local banker is not going to be impressed by noise; he knows the source. The bankers know, too, that mere advice is not always going to be enough. Their assistance will be valuable in many cases, but they realize that they cannot overcome situations where individual industries are not able to obtain supplies.

Can You?

Probably the hardest word to dislodge from improper use is "clone."

Income

In July, 1940, the average American had an income of about $47.92. Military expenditures in that month amounted to approximately $1.50 per person. In April of this year, income per capita was 1.8 times what it was in the middle of 1940 — $85.03, but if the average American had been asked to pay April's war expenses on the spot, they would have taken $53.52 of his new $85.03 income.

Dehydrators

A plan for making 1,000,000 domestic food dehydrators before September 1 has been approved by WPA. These dehydrators are urgently needed, says the War Food Administration, in time to preserve farm and victory garden fruits and vegetables. A home food dehydrator removes moisture from raw food, thereby preserving its flavor and food value for later use.

light filters like honeyed nectar; there is no way of telling the royal stateliness of the flowered cataplas casting their benedictions on the red brick garage and it is refreshing to look out into their gently undulating tops whose green waves shoulder a froth of blossoms. So should a garden be remembered, roofed and encircled with greenery and overflowing with bloom; the brown thrush with summer in his throat said the right words and left off . . . These hot mornings there is a glass of cold water on tap for our postman who has served us loyally and well time out of mind; not so young as he was and still shaken from a severe illness of a few months ago, he still shoulders his pack and makes his rounds. His son of whom he was so proud is in service. "Got a letter from him only the other day from North Africa. Yes, he's been out there since Christmas; says it's cool nights and that he's still alive, thank the Lord. 'Course he got married before he left and asked to have his wife stay with us and his mother and we wouldn't have it any other way." He shoved back his cap, polished his ebony black face and shouldered his pack once more, one of the faithful . . . LIFE WITH MOTHER

Dear Mary:

Why in the world, with a sick child on your hands, plus everything else you have to do, did you bother to acknowledge the simple little gift we sent to Edward? ... not, darling, that we weren't all happy to get your note ... I, because it said Edward was getting better and the children, because they love to receive mail ... I still have it, preserved in one of his dresser drawers, with his other "important papers" ...

By the way, I took Davy and Louis up to our shopping district on Clark st., to a little store, where we've been getting things for a long time now, to select that present ... I don't know the name of it or even if it has one, but it's one of those shops that I've loved to go into ever since I was a tiny girl ... you know the type ... school supplies, penny candies, toys, stationery, birthday cards, wrappings for gifts and who can say how many other exciting things ... it used to be quite typical of its kind ... that is, rather dark, everything a bit dusty and so cluttered up that you'd never dream of going in and selecting something yourself, but you'd wait and ask the proprietor to find it for you ... recently it has changed hands and the elderly couple who bought it have completely transformed it ... the walls and the old dark woodwork are both painted a soft yellow ... most of the old shelves are gone but the few that remain are rubbed down to their original light wood and the glass in them sparkles, it's so clean! ... the floor is covered in linoleum of huge red and black squares so that you seem to be walking on a very large checkerboard ... all the stock is carefully classified and arranged so that you can easily look at it and pick out something you want all by yourself ... there are open book cases along the walls ... one section containing children's books ... the next games in boxes ... another tablets and notebooks ... and one dolls of every description! ... the greeting cards are in a tiered rack ... the birthday cards in one place, cards for the sick in another and cards for every possible contingency each in their special location and every one with a price mark clipped to it! ... the miscellaneous toys are displayed on a long flat table in the middle of the floor ... the show window across the front is no longer boarded up at the back and piled high with an amazing assortment of things but is now a low platform one comfortable step up from the floor of the shop ... formerly you could stand in front of that window all afternoon, if you had the time, and still not be sure that you had seen everything in it ... now if you want one of the few, but fascinating, things it contains, the elderly gentleman goes agilely in and gets it for you ... on a front counter near the door is the cash register and beside it a desk blotter with ink pot and pens where you can write your cards or address your notes ... our Park Post Office is immediately across the street ... do you wonder that I enjoy going there? ...

As we walked along toward the shop, I thought to myself, it will be interesting to watch the reactions of Davy and Louis to my purchasing something to give to another child ... I was remembering my own childhood ... Estelle would undoubtedly deny this, but I'm positive that I was a selfish little piece ... I can remember going shopping with mother or Bonnie and I always wanted everything I saw ... if they purchased anything for another child, I resented it ... whatever of generosity I've since acquired was learned "the hard way" ... I don't believe the pleasure of giving comes naturally to children of five and three ... thinking of all this, I told Davy and Louis, "We're going to buy little Edward a present ... it must be something very nice because he's very sick with the measles." ... I watched their faces ... no remarkable signs of enthusiasm, but at last they didn't immediately ask me what I was going to buy them ... after we were in the store though they became quite interested when I told them they might help me select something ... once the little boat set was produced there was no question of anything else ... Louis said, "Edward can play he's a Coast Guard man, Mommy!" ... and he danced about, laughing and clapping his hands with delight for that's the favorite game in our house now ... in fact it's played in one form or another from morning to night ... I was sure that he'd ask me to buy him one like it but he didn't ... Davy was equally happy but in a different way ... he fingered the little boats and lingered lovingly over the small lighthouse then he said, "Edward can really be like the little boy in THE LAND OF COUNTERPANE with these, Mommy, you know ..." "And sometimes sent my ships in fleets ... All up and down among the sheets!"

Poor Davy, he has played that little boy all too often to suit me in his five short years! ... They watched eagerly as I addressed the package and asked how soon I thought the postman would bring it to Edward ... Davy said, "Put Charlie's name on the card, too." And Louis said, "And J.D. Too ... it's from all us children!" ... suddenly, as I was ready to leave, it came over me that my boys had learned very young that the pleasure of giving is even greater than the pleasure of "getting" ... I was so pleased and touched by their behavior that I hastily bought each of them a "real sailor's cap" ... the three of us marched beaming, out with our purchase ... As we walked home, I had to smile ruefully to myself ... so often I expect my children to react to a situation exactly as I did myself when I was a child ... I'm always on the alert for any faint of mine to appear in them ... I seem to forget on these occasions that they are also their Father's children! ... and you know their Father! ... he'd give away the proverbial "shirt off his back" and then offer mine if I had one! ... ah me ...

Are you trying to have a certain number of meatless days? ... do you have the same difficulty I do in planning them? If you do, you may be interested in Estelle's recipe for Welch Rarebit ... if you want it let me know and I'll send it in my next letter ... until then, my love to you all,

As always,
Eleanore.

Exhibit of army art work at institute

Opening on Thursday, July 8, in the Art in War Gallery at the Art Institute of Chicago, is an exhibition of interest for the general public. One does not need to be an art connoisseur to enjoy the forty odd water color illustrations of Army life depicted by soldiers of Fort Custer, Michigan. These pictures come from the brushes of the fighting men and are not the more usual civilian interpretations. The soldiers are not assigned the task of illustrating their life in the Army, but do it in their leisure time as a recreational outlet.

The subjects chosen are remarkably varied as are the techniques and styles used to illustrate every phase of Army life from a prosaic mop brigade to more dramatic scenes of actual combat. The visitor will see illustrations of the raw recruit arriving, his daily tasks whether they be monotonous or perilous, his lonely moments, his recreations such as dances, games, bull sessions, etc. There are pictures of obstacle courses, anti-aircraft, men at work pitching tents,

Q: Is it natural for all first teeth to be replaced by new ones, including the molars?

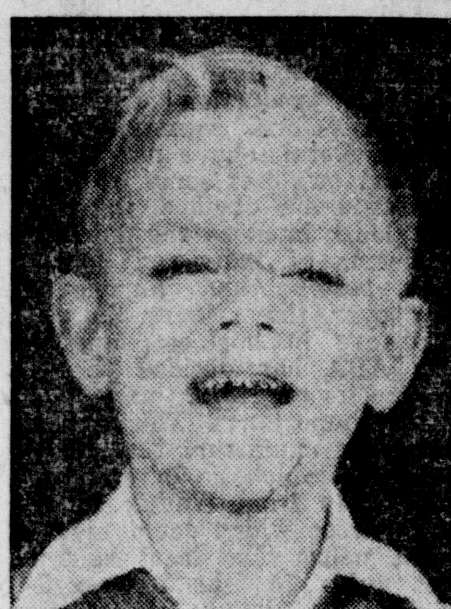

A: Normally, all of the 20 first or deciduous teeth are replaced by permanent teeth, in addition to which the individual receives 12 molars, making 32 teeth in the permanent set.

Q: Do people ever get three sets of teeth? Why?

A: People do not receive a third set of teeth. Occasionally, people do have, or erupt what is known as supernumerary teeth. This, however, is an unusual and abnormal condition.

Q: Why do the molar teeth come times come much too early—the second molars coming before the fourth year of life and the last molars (wisdom teeth) coming shortly after the sixteenth birthday? Has this anything to do with diet?

A: Usually the third molars or wisdom teeth erupt between the 17th and 21st year. Occasionally, for no known reason, these teeth may erupt slightly prior to the 17th year and sometimes after the 21st year. Occasionally the third molars are impacted and do not erupt at all. We doubt that diet has much to do with this condition.

Unclean and decayed teeth create an unfavorable impression and indicate that the child is not receiving dental care and training in oral hygiene. Decayed teeth detract greatly from the appearance and may affect the health. Also serious dental decay and abscesses can retard the child's progress in school, with consequent far-reaching influence on behavior and social relationships.

Housewives asked to spread purchases over month end

"Homemakers and all others purchasing foodstuffs and groceries over the remaining days of this month and early next month are asked to spread their purchases as evenly as possible to avoid the last minute rush that upsets and demoralizes the even flood of rationed commodities through the retail stores."

"We ask the neighbors to be careful to note that the expiration dates of the blue and red stamps are designed so as not to make it necessary to besiege the stores as occurred when customers recently tried to spend their expiring shoe stamps all at once causing great hardship."

"For the six-day period between July 1 and 7 six blue processed food stamps will be good. Blue stamps, K, L, M will remain so until July 7. Stamps N, P, Q, become effective July 1 and remain so until August 7."

Red stamps J, K, L, M, N for the purchase of meats, fats, oils, and cheese will expire Wednesday, June 30. Red stamps P, Q, R, S become effective on the following dates and are good through July 31: P—June 27; Q—July 4; R—July 11; S—July 18."

There is nothing to be gained in waiting until the last few days to use these ration points. Those who shop well ahead of the expiration deadline will find stores less crowded and a greater variety of foods in the counters, and these stamps will buy the same amount of foods now as they will next week."

If, for one reason or another, you don't need part of your weekly ration, destroy the excess coupons. Don't feel that you are compelled to use the points if you do not need the food."

Jewelers Help

Three tons of jewelry dies, originally costing over $250,000, were contributed to the scrap drive by a manufacturing jeweler in New York city.

Sugar allowance should be used wisely in canning

Sugar customarily used in canning fruits does improve their texture, flavor and color, but it does not prevent spoiling, according to Mrs. Madge Little, of the home economics extension staff, University of Illinois College of Agriculture. When sugar is scarce, appearance and flavor take second place. Saving the fruit is the important thing, and this can be done with little or no sugar, provided the proper methods of sterilization are followed and a perfect seal is accomplished.

"While the present sugar ration for canning is more generous than some families will require, there are others that will have to make the best possible use of it in order to preserve their usual supply of fruits. One very good way to stretch the canning allowance is to shift the sugar to suit the fruits, increase the proportion if necessary for tart varieties such as rhubarb and cherries, and then shorten the ration for the very juicy and sweet ones."

"Natural fruit flavors are more pronounced when a syrup is made of the crushed fruit or juice rather than using water. One very good method of preparing the juice is to crush and heat some of the smaller and riper fruit to boiling, using very low heat in order to prevent sticking and scorching. When the juice flows freely, strain and sweeten to taste. This can be cooked with the sugar to make a syrup or added to the fruit unsweetened."

"Another point worth remembering when canning fruit with little or no sugar is to pre-heat the fruit or syrup. This is not only used to improve the flavor, but makes it possible to get more fruit into the jar, which is good in wartime economy in glass jars, caps and shelf space. Avoid packing the fruit too tightly, for a good proportion of fruit to juice is desired in the finished product."

Showing Bad Traveling Streets

A New Orleans newspaper published a map of the city, showing unusually bad spots in city street paving, which are costing motorists hundreds of pounds of vital rubber because of wear and tear on tires. Side streets are the worst.

Children reflect parents reaction in war situation

Emotionally stable adults will be needed for building tomorrow's world, and they, in turn, must be the products of the guidance children receive in the home and communities of today, in the opinion of Miss Edna P. Walls, assistant professor of child development and parent education, University of Illinois College of Agriculture. There is hope that home and communities can meet this challenge in the results of studies which have already been made of the effects of the impact of war upon British children and in the judgment of educational leaders in this country who have studied these problems.

Mr. Daniel Prescott in an article entitled "Maintaining the Emotional Stability of Children in Wartime" describes "stirring events" as one threat to the emotional stability of children. Among those listed, he includes such events as having a brother or father depart for military service, seeing war casualties, reading accounts of war atrocities and enemy actions.

English experience shows that most children "show no more than a normal amount of fear or anxiety" in such situations and that nine out of ten behave extremely well under very disturbing circumstances of this type. The performance of parents, teachers and other adults have much to do with the reaction of children under these trying conditions. Well-poised, courageous adults inspire poise and courage in children who are associated with them.

Civil service jobs are now available

Hundreds of Civil Service clerical workers are needed without delay by the War Department's Centralized field offices. Persons with or without a knowledge of typing will be trained in the operation of various office machines and be paid $146 a month. High school graduates will also be employed as general clerical workers at the same salary.

Also needed are persons with supervisory experience in the operation of office machines such as card punch and tabulating machines. These jobs pay from $164 to $292 a month.

Interested persons willing to work from 4:00 p. m. to 12:30 a. m. should apply immediately at 366 West Adams.

With Uncle Sam

Texas

Pfc. Lyle Foster Thomas, nephew of Mrs. Marie R. Titcomb of Palatine, has just finished an intensive course in airplane mechanics at Sheppard Field, Texas.

Before entering school at Sheppard Field, he was trained at Kelly Field, one of the basic training centers of the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command.

At present Pfc. Thomas is at Dodge City Air Base in Kansas, where he is taking his flying training.

Cpl. Daune Folkman of Arlington Heights is ill in the hospital at Laredo, Texas, and will be there for several weeks. His address is: 7th Gunner School Squadron LAAF, Laredo, Texas.

From Midland, Texas comes a card this week from A/C Franklin J. Bubltz. He has begun night flying now and expects to graduate in about six weeks. His address is: AAFBS Sqn. 3 Flight A—Class 43-11.

Lt. and Mrs. Robert A. Kruse, of Wheeling, have returned to Abilene, Texas, after an interesting trip in Mexico. Lt. Kruse took advantage of a ten day leave from his duties at Camp Barkeley, to enjoy a brief vacation with his wife.

Kansas

Sgt. Leo B. Sumers of Palatine has returned to duty at Camp Phillips, Kansas, after a ten day furlough at his home.

He is now attending school with a training unit, and after finishing this course, he will be sent to another camp. Sgt. Sumers applied for overseas duty, but was told he was more valuable in the training unit.

His address is: Hdq. and Hdq. Bty. 390th F.A. Bn., APO 94 US Army, Camp Phillips, Kansas.

WAACS

Cherie Marie Burdick of Arlington Heights was the recent graduate of the officer training school of the WAACS at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, and she is now a Third Officer (second lieutenant). She graduated at the head of her class and her mother, Mrs. Wm. T. Kellogg, went to Des Moines to pin her bars on her shoulder.

Jayne Payne Duesing was graduated with high honors at Fort Des Moines, last Wednesday, and now holds the rank of lieutenant. She was among the 150 WAACS, the majority of them former school teachers, who were graduated with impressive ceremonies, attended by six high ranking Army Officers from Washington, D. C.

Lieutenant Duesing had the unique experience of having her brother, Corporal William Payne, come from Fort Crooks, Nebraska, where he is stationed, to sit on the bars on her shoulders. It must have been a thrilling experience to both of them.

She is specializing in army administration, and is now going to advanced officers school.

Mrs. William Payne was there to witness the ceremony, and was quite impressed by the drilling. The WAACS have a wide age range, and she said it was a pleasure to see the older women walk along in such brisk fashion.

Prospect Heights is proud to have, as its second WAAC, Miss Suzanne Schenk, Wheeling rd., who was sworn in as a member of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps on Saturday. She is at home, awaiting further orders.

As an enrollee of the WAACS, she is requested to appear at the July 4th celebration to be held at Soldiers Field, where she will appear with other enrollees and members of the women's armed forces.

Kentucky

Cpl. Alex Stoppel of Arlington Heights was home on a three day pass last week-end. He is now stationed at Camp Breckenridge, Kentucky, and his address is: Hq. Btry 7 AAA Group at that camp. Cpl. Stoppel has been in the army since last November.

His brother, Machinist's mate 2C in the Navy is at Santa Ana, California. For some time the two boys were stationed near each other, when Cpl. Alex was at Camp Hahn, California.

Mississippi

Pfc. Elwin Kruse of Wheeling is beginning his air corps training with the 60th Training Group, Keosauqua Field, Miss. Private Kruse recently transferred from the Coast Artillery to the air corps.

Coast Guard

Richard Goedke, son of Mayor and Mrs. Goedke, Arlington Heights is still as husky as ever according to a letter received this week. He and one other were able to handle six other guardsmen. "Rich" called it a "free for all." Richard, "a chip off the old block" does very well in taking care of himself. He is stationed at Coast Guard Training Station, Manhattan Beach, Brooklyn.

As he wrote the letter, he was looking forward to a "liberty" which he regretted would not be long enough to get to Arlington Heights.

Guadalcanal

Corporal James Utpadel of Wheeling, arrived home on Saturday afternoon on his first furlough since enlisting in the Marines 29 months ago, January, 1941. Although Corporal Utpadel is one of six members of his battalion who were returned to the states on sick leave, his family and friends are happy to see him in apparent good health and even better spirits. An inch taller than when he left, he now exceeds the 6 ft. 2 in. maximum height allowed for enlistees in the Marines. Among the things that surprised Jim most on his return was to find the kids of the community grown into charming young ladies and husky young gentlemen. Corp. Utpadel has been a radio operator in the 8th Marines since graduating from the Marine Radio School in July, 1941. In January, 1942, he left the States for the So. Pacific, where he was stationed for 10 months in the Solomon Islands, where they established bases and furthered their training. This was the most boring period of his service. Not even the "Samoan Beauties" were what they are cracked up to be, according to Jim. While there, his unit made practice invasion landings on the New Hebrides. Early in November the 8th Marines landed on Guadalcanal, supporting the earlier invasion forces. Here Jim had his first opportunity to fulfill his ambition to get a crack at a Jap. Fortunately Corp. Utpadel was never wounded, but had some close shaves. He was on the island until January 31, when the Marines were relieved by the regular army. He suffered several attacks of malaria, as well as other diseases common to men unaccustomed to tropical climates. After leaving Guadalcanal, he was hospitalized for treatment and rest for three months in New Zealand. He will report back at the Marine hospital, San Diego, July 22.

Africa

Cpl. Charles Miller, Jr., formerly of Arlington Heights, was one of the first to reach Africa during the past campaign. He saw much action, as a gunner, during the last fourteen days of the battle for Tunisia.

He is the son of Past Commander of the Merle Guild Post of the American Legion, Charles Miller, Sr.

Northbrook's second casualty in this war is Lt. Harry Roepeneck, who was killed in a plane crash June 14. He was a recently commissioned bomber pilot. There will be a memorial mass on July 5, if arrangements can be made.

"Since we can talk a little more now," writes Cpl. Albert Duenn of Arlington Heights, now in Africa, "I'll tell you about the landing we made November 8, 1942.

"Just about daylight the first group got off the troopships, and as soon as they landed, the fireworks started. We landed like flies all over the beach.

"I went off about two o'clock in the afternoon. When I was about ready to hit the beach, the enemy started to strafe it. The sand was flying up all around.

"The half-track I was driving wasn't fast, but it was powerful. My buddies and I studied maps of the coast before we landed, so we knew just where to go. The place where we were supposed to go was in the woods about five miles from the beach. After arriving on the beach and entering the woods, we were supposed to take off our waterproofing on the vehicles. While I was doing this, enemy planes flew over the tree tops. I don't remember whether they did any machine-gunning, but I didn't wait around long enough to find out. I went under the half-track like lightning.

"The next night we went out to protect a certain point. It was raining, and pretty chilly out, and things were pretty quiet until all of a sudden tracers started flying all around us. That went on for about four hours, but everything turned out o. k. because I am still here.

"After the Armistice was signed on November 11, we moved out of there to a place about 200 miles away. We stayed there until the Tunisian Campaign got a little hot. Then we went to Tunisia and did our show there. Incidentally we landed in Fedala and Casablanca."

Iowa

Aviation Cadet Paul Wulbecker of Arlington Heights writes this week from naval pre-flight school at Iowa City, Iowa.

"I've been here at Iowa pre-flight school since May 7 and will move out to a flying base within a short time. I have put in a request for the naval air base in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

"Well, this school certainly teaches one a variety of subjects. Besides our ground school academics, we are given every sport under the sun. The training here is primarily for physical build-up, and is plenty rough. We get up at 0530 and taps blow at 2130 every night. At the end of a day you're pretty glad to see the bed.

"There is Saturday and Sunday afternoon liberty, but we are not allowed over five miles from the base. Iowa City is just three blocks away, so that makes it o. k. They have an obstacle course here which is a lulu! We run this on the average of twice a week.

"All in all it's a pretty nice place and really puts you in good shape. My address is: A/C Paul Wulbecker, USNR USNPS Batt. 23 Co I Room 141 B. Quad Iowa City, Iowa."

California

T/5 Edward R. Doyle tells of the Great Salt Lake in a letter received this week. "Did you ever cross the Great Salt Lake in Utah? Well, I did, and it sure is a long way across. They say that if you take five pounds of that water, you get one pound of salt. The Lake is only eight feet deep."

He then adds that he is not allowed to mention the name of the camp where he is located, but that it is "somewhere in California."

Ed's address is: 711th Signal A.W. Co., APO 3631, c/o PM, San Francisco.

Pvt. A. H. Gerschefske of Palatine writes this week from Camp San Luis Obispo, California, where he has recently been moved. His former station was Camp Wolters, Texas. Pvt. Gerschefske's new address is: 36644965 Co. K, 6th Div. 1st Inf. APO 6. Camp San Luis Obispo, Cal.

Pfc. Melvin Becker of Wheeling, left Fort Riley, Kansas, last week for California, where his unit will be engaged in desert maneuvers. Pfc. Becker had been at Fort Riley for several months during which time he was able to get home for two short visits.

The Legion Auxiliary has just received a letter from Pvt. Kenneth Birks, who says in part, "I certainly want to thank you for the Palatine Enterprise. I enjoy every bit of it. Especially the news of the other fellows in the Service and Mac's Column. I miss Palatine more than I ever thought I would. I've certainly landed in a very active branch of the service. They keep us busy six days a week from 5 a. m. until 9 p. m. Mail call is one that we all enjoy if there are letters for us. I wish that some of the gang would take time out to drop me a line now and then. I'd sure appreciate it. Here is my address: Pvt. K. G. Birks, Plt 379, R.D. M.C.B., U. S. Marine Corps, San Diego, Calif.

Florida

The picture in last week's paper, supposedly of Wilbert Gieseke, was not of him. However, this one is. Will is a newly commissioned second lieutenant in the U. S. Marine Air Corps.

During the course of his training he has been stationed at Iowa City, Glenview, and Corpus Christi; he is now at the Naval Aviation training school at Hollywood, Florida.

Bank nets $17

The traveling bank at Arlington Heights netted Lt. John Ernst $17. This week Pfc. Melvin H. Garmis is the driver. His address is: Marine Barracks, NAS, Navy number 14, c/o Fleet Post Office, San Francisco, Cal.

Louisiana

From Louisiana this week comes a letter from Sgt. Arnold Schaefer of Arlington Heights. He says that he is located about eight miles from a little town called Many, where it rains nearly every day.

He goes on to tell of maneuvers in which his division is to fight the 31st, and then "I don't know why we should. We will win anyhow. You can't beat the infantry."

"We sure hated to leave Fort Sam Houston. We rode in trucks four hundred miles from San Antonio to here, leaving on a Sunday morning and getting here on a Monday night."

Arnold's address is: Ser. Co. 377th Inf. ASN 36359325 APO 95 c/o PM Shreveport, La.

Private Edward Wesolek of Wheeling, has been transferred to Camp Claiborne, La., after spending several weeks in classes at Georgetown University, Washington, D. C. Pvt. Wesolek is a member of Co. C in the 373rd Engineers Regt.

Home on leave last week in Arlington Heights was Lt. Col. Dan E. Schuere of the Field Artillery. Col. Schuere has been in the army two and a half years during World War II and has seen service overseas.

While in Arlington Heights he got his family settled in their home at 59 Newbury Place.

His new address is: 39th Replacement Bn., New Orleans Port of Embarkation, New Orleans, La.

Rhode Island

Lieut. (j. g.) James H. Harz, formerly of Palatine, has been called to active duty in the Naval Air Corps. He has had his commission since March, but has just recently been called.

Before enlisting Jim was employed by the International Business Machine Co. in Chicago, where he has been living.

His address is: A-V USNR N.T.S. (1) U.S. Naval Air Station, Quonset Point, Rhode Island.

England

A letter has been received from Corp. Walter Schultz, of Mt. Prospect, somewhere in England. He says the most exercise he gets now is pushing a pencil.

Since the biggest difficulty there is transportation he bought himself a second-hand bicycle for 6 lbs.—$24 and pedals madly through the English countryside almost every evening.

He says he has had no opportunity to visit the larger cities although they are free to visit any of the small villages in the neighborhood. The English country is beautiful beyond description. The weather, however, is a trifle treacherous, and a raincoat is standard equipment.

All articles are rationed at the canteen, but allotments are large enough so that no one feels he is being deprived of any necessities. Corporal Schultz says he enjoys reading the "local gazette" and hopes it keeps coming promptly. He sent belated congratulations to the winning politicians in the recent election in the village.

Virginia

In a letter to the Herald this week from Pvt. Peter Bodor of Arlington Heights, he tells of army life at Camp Pickett, Virginia. He writes:

"Well, I have been in the Army nine months and it is swell. The food is the best you can get, and since I have been in I have put on 20 pounds and feel great."

"While down in Florida I bumped into Bill Heineman's son, Walter, and it sure was good to see a fellow from the home town. The other night I bumped into Bill Langhorst."

"The camp that I am at sure is big, and they also have WAACS here. The towns are close with Washington, D. C. only 165 miles away. I hope to see the capitol soon."

"The town paper sure is swell to get, and the first thing when it comes I turn to the service men's page."

Pete's new address is: Co. C. 103rd Engrs., Combat Bn., Camp Pickett, Virginia, APO 88.

Russell Dahlstrom S/1C of Mt. Prospect is in training with the Sea Bees at Camp Perry, Virginia. He says that they ended their training with the Marines June 25 and had a dress parade. He is now taking technical training.

The training in the Sea Bees is really tough. The temperature is somewhere around 104 degrees while the men stand at attention for half an hour trying to look cool.

Russell celebrated his 20th birthday July 1. He has been lucky in drawing the right straw when boys were being picked for special occasions. He was picked to go to Williamsburg and see the historic sights as well as being one of the lucky fellows to attend Bob Hope's show.

Camp Perry is a beautiful new camp, twelve miles long. The men live in houses with steel roofs, 14 men in each. Russell has worn out 5 pairs of shoes since April. He started out wearing 10½ shoes, but now takes size 12 "gunboats." One hot day when they were training on high climbing he fell and landed in a barrel of water. It felt good.

He says he used to be able to fill up on ice cream, but now eats four pork chops at a meal, and plenty of everything to go with it.

One thing that doesn't make him happy is that his washing does not dry out when he hangs it out overnight, because of the damp climate. He is learning to sew a little. His Boy Scout training served him well, as he had charge of drilling squads because of it.

"Our outfit has just moved from Camp Gordon Johnson, Florida to Camp Pickett, Virginia," writes Pvt. Wilbert H. Grandt of Arlington Heights. "Boy, it sure is a big job to pack all the company things and then all your own personal belongings besides."

"The day we pulled out of camp I had the soldiers' favorite, KP, and what fun. I guess every one was so glad to get out of that nice deep Florida sand and to a civilized camp that the KP's worked like clock-work."

"I can't say much about this camp except that it's of enormous size and we have double barracks. It's really swell. There are plenty of towns around here to go to like Richmond and Washington, D. C. We've got everything from WAACS and nurses to prisoners."

Will's new address is: Co. D, 110th Inf. APO 28 Camp Pickett, Virginia 36372232.

T/Sgt. Melvin J. Gaere is with the 324th Fighter Squadron, Army Air Base, Richmond, Virginia, and writes that he has been there so long it almost seems like home. He adds that he was acting First Sergeant for fifteen days.

Lt. John F. Sicks of Wheeling, of the 741st Tank Battalion, has recently been transferred from Camp Polk, La., to Camp Pickett, Virginia.

Algiers

In a recent interview by a foreign news correspondent, the name of Rudy Hajek of Palatine was included among the Flying Fortress Squadron, stationed somewhere in Algiers, which claims to be the best qualified for advanced duty on the European continent by nature of the antecedents of its personnel. This squadron, headquartered in a grain warehouse, is made up of Chicagoans whose parents are all foreign born. Out of the 21 boys there, none had ever seen Europe, all were born in Chicago or its environs and are all looking forward to visiting their parents' birthplaces in the near future. The sooner the better to suit them. Rudy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hajek, has recently been made a Corporal.

Algeria

T-Sgt. Merle E. Hartmann of Palatine, who is with the Army in Algeria, writes of his activities there. "During the past weeks I have seen many things to set me back on my feet. I've seen people with that hungry look, and with a look of greed. Nothing I have seen anywhere, however, can compare with the American way of life."

"It's quite warm here today, and one can hardly find a place to cool off except with a dip in the Mediterranean now and then. The nights are cool, and with the coolness come the mosquitoes. You really can get a good night's rest if you have a good mosquito net. When these mosquitoes circle around your head, they sound like dive bombers ready for a crash landing."

After telling of the many places in Africa in which he has been, Sgt. Hartmann goes on to say: "In Ferryville the German prisoners just idled along the roadside. One gave them very little thought and cared little about what they were doing. Now and then a truck would come along and take them to a prison camp. Some of them were smiling as though they were glad it was all over."

"Along the roads you could see graves, most of them German. There was German equipment all over the country-side, and mine fields that had been cleared up. These things they left in their retreat to Tunis and Bizerte."

"I had at one time a German helmet and rifle, but we had to turn them in or leave them on the salvage piles. After all, if we had taken all the things we wanted for souvenirs, we'd have needed a two and a half ton truck."

Sgt. Hartmann's address is: 36005361 APO 3 c/o PM New York City, N. Y.

Prison Camp

Lt. Norman Retchin, whose wife, Pearl, is residing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Mervis, Barrington, has written his family that he is alive and well and is receiving excellent treatment in a German prison camp. His only request is cigarettes and lots of them. All except one member of his crew on the bomber that was shot down, escaped with their lives.

New Caledonia

Sgt. Sidney McManaway of Wolf and Palatine rds., Mt. Prospect, V-mails this week from New Caledonia. He tells of a recent cold spell — "Temperature must have been down to 80 degrees," he writes.

He goes on to say "There isn't a bath tub on the island, but we did have a shower in camp. It was only an oil drum with a pipe in it."

Sgt. McManaway's address is: 36004077, APO 3551, c/o PM, San Francisco, Cal.

A Letter From Bud

Our letter from Bud came this mornin' And that kid about floored Ma and me When he told how he met with disaster, From a quaint little foe called the Bee.

He wrote — "we'd been cut on maneuvers And was all bedded down for the night, When an order came thru from the Captain To roll out and get ready to fight."

We was detailed to find some small boxes That was hid away upon a hill, Then to carry them back to the Captain And to use all our caution and skill.

He said this was our secret mission, That them boxes might hold dynamite, And the boys that came thru with the boxes Would get furloughs 'til next Sunday night.

So at midnight the "Go" sign was given And in Squads we left camp for "the kill" But me and my bunch stopped to pow-wow On the best way to climb up that hill.

While we was a talkin things over We heard stompin' and blood curdin' yelps And the air reeked with old-fashioned cussin' So we said right away — "Booby traps."

So our Squad we just sat down and waited 'Til the first streak of day lit the skies, Then we sneaked up the hill slow and easy And then crawled inch by inch toward the prize.

Very gently we lifted them boxes And then joyfully swung down the hill, But our joy was soon turned into sorrow When two of the gang had a spill.

They both thrilled like a couple of sirens Drop them boxes and run for your lives" For the boxes that he was a luggin' Was some camouflaged honey bee hives.

That long race down the hill broke all records For our feet fairly started to fly, When them bees really started a stingin' We just prayerfully threw her in high.

With a cloud of dust raisin' behind us And them bees hangin' on to our rears, I'll tell you the wind we was splittin' Was dryin' our eyes of all tears.

Well, the whole camp today is a laffin' For no one got that furlough to town, But the boys in our Squad would be thankful For a nice cool, soft spot to sit down."

Pacific

"The tropical weather here in these South Pacific jungles," writes Pvt. Wilbert Witheager of Palatine, "is much different from that back in the states. It is always hot and every one has a dark sun tan. It rains quite a lot and our fox holes fill with water."

"Walking on the coral rock is quite rough because of the sharp edges, and when we go into the jungles, we have to chop our way inch by inch. The jungle consists of various types of twisted vines, bushes, trees, and ridges; this particular spot along the beach is leveled and is near a large coconut grove."

"I appreciate receiving the Palatine Enterprise very much and enjoy reading all the news of back home."

"My address is: Pvt. Wilbert Witheager 36359472 APO 37 c/o PM, San Francisco."

Pfc. Melvin H. Garmis of the Marines and Arlington Heights, writes this week from the Pacific war theatre. He says "I still like it plenty, and they do everything to make a fellow happy. They show some mighty good movies out here and that theatre is always packed. Then, I play plenty of baseball and you know how I love that, so I'm more than satisfied."

Somewhere in the Pacific is Ray W. Meyer, RT 2/c USNR of Arlington Heights. He enjoys his Herald very much, although it does arrive late, and when he has finished it, he hands it over to Dr. Paul Kionka, a former Arlington physician, who is one of his shipmates.

Ray's address is: Navy Advance Base Navy 140 Admin. 2 c/o FPO San Francisco, S.C. Div.

Solomons

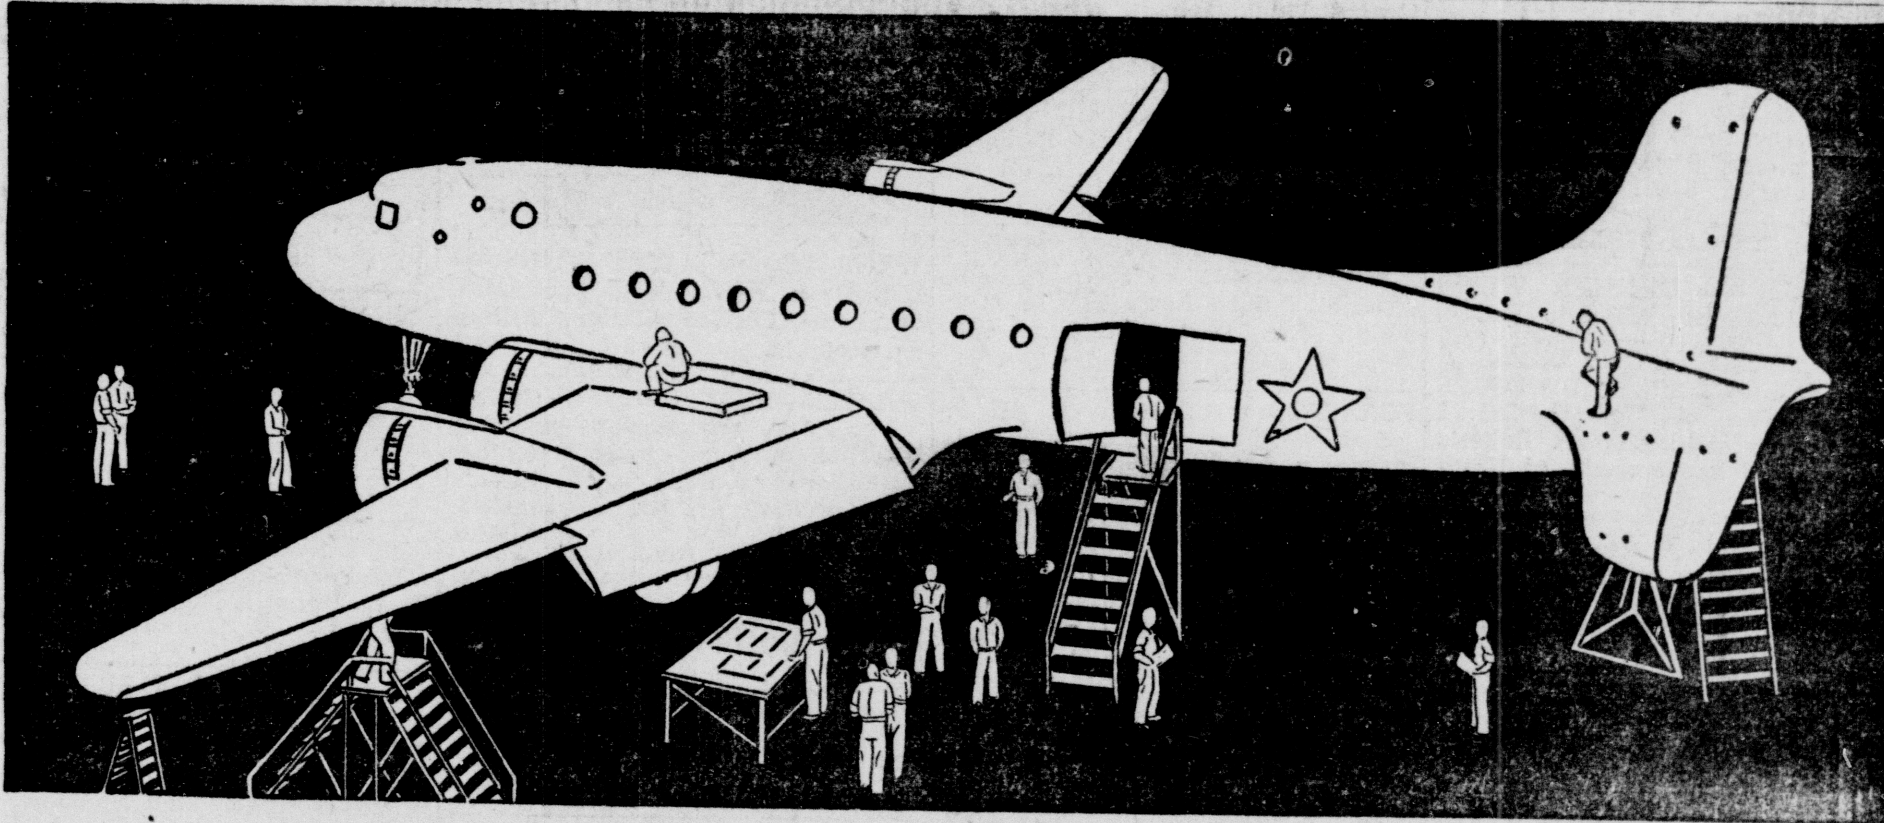

Corp. Alfred Krueger of the U. S. Marines, and Wheeling, has been a patient at Great Lakes hospital since last week, suffering from effects of the battle for the Solomons. Corp. Krueger enlisted in the Marines in January, 1941, and trained at the Marine Base at San Diego. During the winter of '41-'42, he was with a Marine detachment on duty in Iceland. In the spring of '42 he came back to the states when he was home on furlough. He was then stationed at Parris Island, S.C., Carolina. In the summer of '42 his unit headed for the South Pacific and the Solomons engagement. Corporal Krueger was stationed on Tulagi during the fall and winter. Although his condition has been serious, the doctors are hopeful that rest and quiet will speed his recovery. He arrived in Chicago from San Diego last Wednesday and hospitalized at Great Lakes. His friends are hoping for a quick comeback.

Georgia

Pfc. Orville Kurtz of Arlington Heights, is ill in the Station Hospital at Waycross, Georgia. He is expected to remain in the hospital several weeks.

His address is: 385 Bomb Sqn; Ward 3; Station Hospital; Waycross Air Base; Waycross, Georgia.

Pvt. Art Gieseke is now a member of the Para-Troopers, stationed at Fort Benning, Georgia. He has been in the army since March 4, and had his basic training with the infantry at Camp Wolters, Texas.
